BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Directors and officers of the Consumers Power Co., who last week held a meeting in their newly opened Birmingham branch office, are vitally interested in what they call the "Southeast Division," which includes all of Oakland County, a large part of Macomb, and portions of the Northville area of Wayne. In this division they now have 119,102 gas customers out of a total of 335,000 they have in 22 counties in other parts of Michigan. "We are mindful of this growth adjacent to Detroit," said J. R. Whiting, chairman of the board, and intend to do everything possible to meet the public demands for our product.

Anyone interested in a Birmingham chess club? Kenyon M. Lee, 345 North Glenhurst, a chess player for 25 years, has been active in other clubs in Detroit area and would like to see Birmingham represented with a club of its own. Lee suggested that regular meetings of the club could be held at the Community House. He would like to hear from interested parties to test the reaction to such an organization.

There were prizes for everyone at the St. James pet parade this year and a few left over. In spite of the miniature food to which the weatherman exposed Birmingham, a few hardy youngsters brought their pets and the parade was held on schedule. According to parade officials, this is the second time in the quarter of a century that the event has been held that it has been marred by bad weather. Quite a record!

Wanted—30 women by the Girl Scouts if this quota of leaders is not filled, would be great. Three hundred girls are enrolled for the Camp for two weeks in August. Only requirements are a deep interest in girls and love of outdoors. No special skill required. Training will be given. The disappointment experienced by Birmingham Brownies and Girl Scouts if this quota of leaders is not filled, would be great. Three hundred girls are enrolled for the two-day camp periods of Aug. 5, 6, 7, 8, 11, 12 and Aug. 14, 15, 19, 20, 21, 22 at Woodland Site, 13 1/2 Mile and Southfield Roads. Girl Scout camping policy requires (Continued on Page 3, Part 2)
