Slevens college at the Masonic Temple on Saturday. Jim Kelly and son Michael made a trip to Albany, N.Y. last week to visit Kelly's mother. Friday was the 50th birthday of Mrs. James A. Kelly.

Two boys from Beverly Hills were participants in the plays given by the drama club, which last week was named the "Proscenium". Roger Miller was a plumber in Robertson Davies. "Voice of the People" and Tom Tabor was one of the sailors in Eugene O'Neill's "In the Zone".

Susan Tabor was among the guests at Wendy Rose's "cocktail" party on Friday evening. After sipping a coke or two the group attended Mrs. Brown's dancing party at the Birmingham Community House. On Saturday, Susan participated in the annual aqua frolic at the City club where precision swimming was performed. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Tabor. The Tabor's son, Tom spent the past weekend on a canoe trip with the Scout Explorer Troop B-4 on the Aulabelle river. Robert Parry and William Averill sponsored the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Tabor were among the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lutz on Greenwood on Saturday evening. Questionnaires were sent to the invited guests well in advance and during that evening the guests tried to identify the person filling out the blanks through the answers.

Dr. W. H. Wilson was met at the airport in Chicago last week-end by his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duhn, children Jimmie, Sally and Billy. The Duhns, after visiting relatives in Chicago, returned to their home on Lahser where Dr. Wilson will spend the summer. His home is in Houston, Texas.
