

Baldwin Round-Up Friday Evening

Members of the Baldwin PTA have circled Friday evening, May 9, on their calendars, for that is the date chosen for the Baldwin "Roundup."

The evening will get under way with an ice-cream social, under the direction of Mrs. Harvey Swift. Going-on at the "fish-pond" will be supervised by Mrs. Thomas Stoberg.

Mrs. J. W. Sutton has provided the decorations, and the Brownies, Cubs, Girl and Boy Scouts will purvey candy and popcorn.

The Student Council has arranged to be guides through the evening.

Square dancing will end the program.

Stauffers Host Artist

Miss Sally Humphries of Delaware, Ohio, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Stauffer of Surfside road this past week.

Miss Humphries, former director of the Ohio Wesleyan University art school, showed a group of her paintings and gave an interpretive talk to members of the Monnet Club on Tuesday.

The Club, composed of Ohio Wesleyan alumnae, met at the Westwood drive home of Mrs. Ralph Fox.

St. Rita's Guild Meets

St. Rita's Guild will hold their final meeting of the year Thursday evening at 8:15 p.m. The evening's hostess will be Mrs. Joseph Beh of 831 Lakeview.

GIVING THE PHOTOGRAPHER a preview only minutes before the opening of the Parker Choir Fair Saturday were (left to right) Bob and Gregg Dearth. The fair, sponsored by the Parker PTA, opened at noon.
