Annual Pet Parade Set for May 24th

The St. James area of Chester street and Maple road is tranquil now but not for long. For from May 22 through May 24 the annual St. James Pet Parade, Plant Sale and Street Sale will be in full swing.

Long a Birmingham tradition, the triple event is this year under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Lawton C. Tabor.

Mrs. A. J. Brennan is chairman of the Plant Sale which will open May 22 and continue through Saturday. The Pet Parade, the animal kingdom's equivalent to a come-out party, will be under the direction of Mrs. J. Monroe Ross. Costumed youngsters and their four-footed friends will compete for prizes Saturday, May 24. William M. O'Leary, representing the men's club at St. James, heads a group that will provide pony rides, hay rides, and the like.

EACH GUILD of the Women's Auxiliary will sponsor a booth. Heading up the various groups are Mrs. Victor King, Mrs. Frank Lyndall, Mrs. Ralph C. Mark, Mrs. Joseph E. Williams, and Mrs. Richard Dixon. Miss Ruth Graf will direct the young people's activities.

Others working on plans for long-anticipated event are the Madames Lange Minor, B. E. Macdonald, Richard C. O'Leary, Phillip Streeter, Franklin Howell, J. E. Goodman, S. M. Vass, Mark Duffield, Kenneth Hardy, Charles Davison and John Wolf.

Mrs. Frank Webb Garden Club Head

Mrs. Frank Webb was elected to head the Birmingham Branch of the Women's National Park and Garden Association, Inc., at the group's annual meeting Monday at the Community House.

Also elected to serve during the coming year were Mrs. Raymond H. Smith, first vice-president; Mrs. David L. Van Dusen, second vice-president; Mrs. Mark Kraus, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Chissus, treasurer.

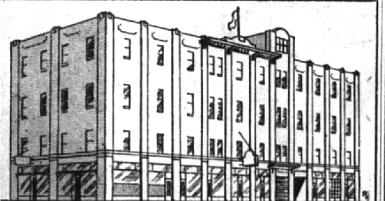

THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE was headed by Mrs. William McCallum, and composed of Mrs. J. Vinton Birch, Mrs. Harold R. Chapel, Mrs. W. A. Kleimert, and Mrs. Elmore Wollerting.

After a talk by Walter Nickell of the Cranbrook Institute of Science, the group went to the Baldwin Library to view an exhibit of flower arrangements by members. A exhibit will be open through May 12.
