Public Library Begins Story Hour for Children In Elementary Schools

On Nov. 13 a story hour for boys and girls of elementary grades will start at Baldwin public library. The group will meet in the library each Thursday at 3:45 p.m.

The Thursday Book Hour is planned to give boys and girls from the various schools a chance to get together to exchange news about their favorite books and authors, explained Miss Jeanne Lloyd, head librarian.

Miss Carol Roberts, elementary librarian department, will present some of the new fall books at the first session. Her list will include "Pat's Harmony," a story based on a former Birmingham girl, Patricia Lee Cray, and her horse, and written by Page Cooper.

General news deadline is 4:30 p.m. each Tuesday.

Skits Enliven Annual Reception

"A Day at the Community House," a skit to be presented by Mrs. W. H. Milligan, will headline the entertainment at the annual Newcomers' Reception at the House Wednesday evening, November 19.

Also on the program will be a skit, as yet in the planning stage, to be given by a group of Birmingham High School students. Cards will be handed to newcomers upon their arrival and, at the end of the evening, a prize will be awarded to the guest who has amassed the most autographs.

AFTER BEING greeted by Mayor Dean Beier, Community House board chairman Charles Kass, and others, newcomers will be taken on tours of the Community House by board members. Refreshments will be served by a committee headed by Mrs. Carl Metz.

Rezoning Petition Formally Denied

Formal rejection was made Monday night by Birmingham city commissioners of a petition for the rezoning of property at the southeast corner of Adams and E. Maple from residential to multiple family. Several weeks ago the commission announced its tentative decision, but delayed it until this week in the event the property owner wanted a formal hearing. Such hearing was not requested.

Michigan Artists' Show Opens Tuesday

The 43rd annual Exhibition for Michigan Artists will open at the Detroit Institute of Arts at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, November 18. The Women's Committee of the Founders Society will act as hostesses for the opening reception which will continue until 11 p.m. News copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. So the "Early Bird" usually gets the space.
