Children of all grades are assisting the teachers in putting on demonstrations of teaching methods.

HEARING AIDS and BATTERIES

Second grade—Taking part in a demonstration about clocks and telling time will be Brian O'Neil, Dianne Mott, Linda Jacobson, Janet Vashaw and Allen Bennett. Christine Layman is a new girl in the second grade.

THIRD GRADE—The children are painting furniture in the room and making a new library corner. They chose Judy Symon and Don Enrich to illustrate books for the library corner. Judy Symon, Susan Smith, Don Enrich, Freddy Osterbeck and Johnny Bishop will take part in the arithmetic demonstration. The third grade has the bulletin boards this week.

Fourth grade—Lynn Roberts, Jerry Dett, Richard Mealy, Douglas Walton and Karina Smith will demonstrate the thinking involved in working story problems.

Fifth and sixth grade—The children had a big time on election day. They had speakers for both candidates, parades and an election with official ballots. Those helping Mrs. Kusander with the arithmetic demonstration were Edward Nickel, Margaret Roberts, Guy Graber and Paul Zimmerman.

A SKIT, "Thrift and Folly," was written by the Walnut Lake School defense and savings staff committees for the open house. Taking part will be Virginia Irwin, Karen Madron, Michael Whims, Douglas Moore, Susan Robinson, Judith Karnes, Larry Enrich, Bobby Sinta, Corinne Sarland, Edward Nickel, Tommy Suecher, Land Madron, Michael Madden, Robert Smith, Larry Sundstrom and Nan Jones.

Vision and hearing testing was carried on last Thursday and Friday. Assisting were Mrs. Richard Benneke, Mrs. Ed Sinta, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Edward Gruber, Mrs. Robert Myers, Mrs. Otis Fockler, Mrs. Fred Morton and Mrs. William Noth, chairman.

The Garden and Science Club has a display in the cabinet of hobbies brought by its members. The committee in charge consists of Sandra Sacket, Danny Welker and Bobby Sinta.

THE SCHOOL COUNCIL has taken up the matter of the school house election on Nov. 17. Paul Zimmerman, Karen Madron, Margaret Roberts and Guy Graber were appointed as a committee to make posters reminding everyone to vote "Yes." All members took the message back to their rooms.

A poster contest in the sixth grade resulted in winners Sharon Gibson, Paul Zimmerman, Karen Madron, Margaret Roberts and Guy Graber, whose posters are in honor. Honorable mention went to Howard Benway, Lee Roberts, Gerald Blanton, Benjamin Bingham, Roseland Iatham, Paul Heller, Tom Harrison, Mark Whims and Deanna Hughes. These posters are in the lunch room for parents to see.

Steve Pew, Brenda Zercher, Janice McAllister, Brenda Pickett, Jane Severs, Linda Barham, Anne Fitzgerald, Julie Winter, Judy von Rosen, Pat MacLennan, and Sharon McKay. More will be added later.

Work on the Christmas program has started. Included in the number to be given will be "Jesu Bambino" by Yon, "Ave Maria" by Schubert, and "The Seven Fold Amen."

THE SEVENTH and eighth grade girls' gym classes are using the portable trampoline. "Safety first" is their motto. The jumper is protected by guards along the edges of the trampoline. The girls know a variety of stunts; however, they are required not to jump when Mrs. Dillon, the girls' gym teacher, is not present. The trampoline is used for fun, better health, and muscle coordination.

Mr. Charles Buell's Explorers' Club went to Lansing, Michigan, to observe Michigan State Penn State October 25. They also went on a tour while they were there. William Clark conducted the tour. They went to the Capitol Building, Senate and the House of Representatives.

Within the last two weeks the Explorers' Club has been to "Yellowstone" and "Sun Valley."

STUDENTS AND FACULTY expressed sympathy to Mr. J. A. MacTavish and his family because of the death of his mother in West Virginia.

A film called, "Food from the Sun," was shown in all of Mr. Fred Radloff's science classes, on Monday, November 3.

It told how vital the sun is to all living things. It told how plants use light to make food. This process is called photosynthesis. It also told the uses for plants other than for food.

Miss Dolores Gillette's seventh grade homemaking classes have decided to work on breakfast. Some of the things they have been doing and will do with work are: cocoa, eggs, cereals, fruit, bacon, pancakes, biscuits, and muffins.

MR. JOE SHIELDS led an assembly Thursday, November 6, to open Barnum's 1952 magazine sale. Sponsored by Corwell-Collins Publishing Company, Miss Jane Ward, Barnum's librarian, and Mr. Malcolm Tindall, boys' counselor, are the business managers. Last year Barnum was the second highest.

Start Rehearsals For Circa Scenium

Hurry! Hurry! Get your ticket to the greatest show on earth! That is the theme song of the 1953 Washington group members selling tickets to "Circa Scenium," annual variety show put on by Birmingham high school.

Six long weeks of arduous rehearsal are going into "Circa Scenium." Close to 300 students will participate in the show patterned after a two-ring circus and complete with ring masters, clowns and animal acts.

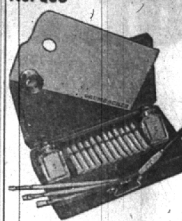

Other features of the circus will be a roller skating exhibition, hill billie music, chorus lines, and song and dance acts. A special highlight will be a ballroom dancing number with 14 couples.

Angelo Angelelli, general director and Meridelle Knight is student director. Miss Sally Reid is dance choreographer and Miss Virginia Liss is makeup adviser.

"Circa Scenium" will be presented November 20 and 21 in the high school gymnasium. All tickets are one dollar with no seats reserved.

Newspaper submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. So the "Early Bird" usually gets the space.
