Girl Scouts are conducting their annual calendar sale, proceeds of which are used to maintain and purchase equipment for day camp and Camp Narrin, for southern Oakland county Girl Scouts.

Among the items bought last year were 18 new beds, making it possible for 198 additional girls to attend camp during its six sessions. This year some rowboats should be replaced and tents need repairs. Mrs. Edward Nightengale, Mrs. Mahlon Sutton, Mrs. James B. Roberts, Mrs. Harold Jones, Mrs. Edson Stevens, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Reginald Smith or any Brownie mother or any Girl Scout will accept orders.

Two Walnut Lake Girl Scout troops and the Brownie troop met at the school Nov. 3 as a kickoff for the calendar sale. Miss Ann Richardson, showed pictures of the camp and told about camp life. Girls who have already been to Narrin added their stories and sang camp songs. Nibbles were served by Rosalind Latham, Carmen Sutton and Carol La Motte. On Thursday a number of the girls, accompanied by their leaders and Mrs. John Gibson, attended the tea given by the Needlework guild at Birmingham Community House. Garments made last year by Girl Scouts for the Guild were on display.

Mothers of fifth and sixth grade Girl Scouts and Walnut Lake Brownies, as well as members of the Girl Scout neighborhood association, will meet at the home of Mrs. Edson Stevens, neighborhood chairman, on Thursday, Nov. 18, at 7:30, when Miss Ann Richardson, professional staff member for the Birmingham district, will be present.

A welcome in Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mair and their sons, who last week moved from Southfield to the home formerly owned by the Ray Fletchers on Putnam Drive. Mair is with the construction firm of Darin and Armstrong. The Mairs' four boys are Eldon, Dick, Jimmy and Teddy.

Other new neighbors are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bell and their daughter Joyce, formerly of Highland Park, who have been in their new home at 5470 Putnam since September. Bell is with Chrysler and Joyce is an art student at Wayne university. The Bells also have a married son and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Crater, until recently residents of Walnut Lake, have been visiting the Don Luthers before going to Florida. Mr. and Mrs. William Sloat of Inkster road had as their guests last week Sloat's sister and nephew, Mrs. Ruth Scott, of Marion, Ohio, and Sgt. James Scott, Sgt. Scott left by plane for Seattle, Wash., to join his outfit.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hansen of Putnam Drive were Mrs. Hanson's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Gressman of Janesville, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Currie, who have been living in the home of Mrs. Currie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Richards, have bought a home in Dearborn and will move there soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heinman left last Wednesday for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will spend the winter. During their absence their Putnam drive home will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander.

Watching election returns at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bruland on Sunnycrest last Tuesday were Don Benawas, the Norm Facers, the Harry Boards and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bruland of Detroit.

Open house for precinct workers was held by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flint at their Middlebelt road home on election night. Among those from Walnut Lake were Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stutz, the Richards, the McKays, the Fred Mortons, Mr. and Mrs. Parker Rockwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Weaver, Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. James B. Roberts.

The Elmer Spichers of Putnam drive chose the day after election to celebrate the occasion with a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Hagen Race and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Pratt.

Mrs. Keith Symon of Terra Haute, Ind., is visiting her son and daughter, the Keith Symons of Putnam drive. Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens attended the first of the Cotterie dances to be held at the Community House this fall.

Cub Scout pack meeting for November will be on Tuesday, Nov. 18, at 7:30.

Brian Morrell, Keeper of the Buckskins, reports that Den 1 saluted the flag and painted plaster of Paris masks at their meeting last Thursday. Philip Enrich brought the nibs.

Bobbe Young and Tommy Kirby brought wintery as nibs for Den 2 and the boys had a winner round in the basement. They played games and made plans for next week.

Cubs of Den 3 worked on a music project from their Bear books. Richard Bennetts brought the nibs.
