The many dinner reservations already made and general admission tickets sold for the annual President's Ball promise it will be the biggest ever. The dinner dance starts at 8 p.m. tomorrow. Tickets for the dance at 9 p.m. will be on sale at the door. The ball, sponsored by the Franklin Community association, is given in honor of the retiring president of the organization and serves to introduce the new president. It was originated about seven years ago by Hugh White. The guest of honor this year is Harry Rottiers, retiring, and the new president, Phil Van Dyke. Presidents from years past planning to attend include Harold Roseberry, Hugh White, Win Hinman, Win Conrad and Edward Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rottiers will be hosts at cocktails at their place on 15-Mile road preceding the ball. They have invited the Lincoln Parkers, the Edwards Greens, the Walter Bihlers, the Robert Mitchells, the Murdoch Morrisons, Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harris, and the Phil Van Dykes. Other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mirabito, and Dr. and Mrs. Harlow Bates.

Guests of the Donald Hackers at their place on Colony Hill road for cocktails prior to the ball will be Mr. and Mrs. Preston Dzier, Jr., and the Stanley Browns. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hampson have invited several guests to their Woodlure road home for cocktails. Included are Mr. and Mrs. George Altmanberger, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Starret and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Faulkner.

The Hugh Whites' cocktail party at their home on Scenic drive will also serve as a farewell party to Mr. and Mrs. Eamon Rutledge who are leaving next week to make their home in Hartwell, Wash. On the guest list are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Duval, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rayner, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Winchell and members of the Rutledge's supper club, the Jules Dreumanns, the Dick Oberschultes and the Chet Harlds.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, of Romey road, will also have cocktails at their home for a group attending the ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Schlatterbeck will be hosts at cocktails at their home on Beech Hill road to all of the Woodcreekers who plan to attend the ball. One sequel to the ball will be only morning breakfast at the Phil Van Dyke place on Franklin road to which they have invited the officers of the community association and their wives. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Herman, of Captains lane, spent last weekend in New York.

Mrs. Harold Ellerby was hostess to members of the Birmingham Womens Club for luncheon and 10 tables of bridge at her home on 14-Mile road last Friday afternoon. The affair was one of several sponsored by the club to raise funds to purchase equipment for the polo center in Pontiac.

RECIPE FOR A HAPPY HOME

Perfectly blended ingredients make the cake... and perfection lies in the flavoring. Take the comfort and ease of one-floor living... add a generous portion of interior AND exterior beauty... the result? Something to be proud of!

THE ELEMENTS

- Come-in-and-sit-down Living Room... cozy fireplace
- Sugar and spice Kitchen... luxurious Formica... dishwasher and disposal... cheery Breakfast Room
- 3 attractive Bedrooms... many closets... over-sized Bath with built-in vanity... Powder Room... both color-tiled.
- Large screened Porch viewing the terraced back yard
- Full, conveniently arranged Basement... 2 car garage
- NOW... the flavor... enjoyment in full measure!

Just a pinch of stunning decoration... the well and place on a grassy plot. Lastly... and most important... blend in an owner... and sugar with his happy family... you'll find this home you've been dreaming about! Low taxes... Good school district. Let's see it now... can't you taste it?
