

Red Cross Plans '53 Fund Campaign

"Speed, conviction and coverage—these are the factors volunteers and leaders of Oakland county chapter, American Red Cross, will stress in the fund campaign early next year," Gar A. Sweeney of Royal Oak told the executive board when they met Nov. 19 in Bloomfield Hills.

Besides chairman of the coming drive, service group chairman, attended the meeting held by Dr. Robert W. Kelso, chapter chairman.

Sweeney announced that campaign chairman from the Oakland county communities would get complete instructions at a dinner meeting scheduled for Jan. 16 at Christ Church Cranbrook. "Answer the Call," has again been selected for the drive slogan.

Vicinity chairmen include William Averill, Birmingham and Mrs. Sheldon Noble, Southfield, on the executive committee; Mrs. Leroy Vandever, Bloomfield Hills, nursing services; Mrs. Bradlee Pruden, vice chairman of volunteers and Mark P. Smith, water safety, both of Birmingham.

News copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. So the "Early Bird" usually gets the space.

AN OSCAR FOR advertising is presented to Frederick E. Burnham, 603 N. Glenhurst, (left), vice president and controller of Fruehauf Trailer company by Weston Smith, executive vice president of Fruehauf World magazine. Fruehauf's annual report advertising, shown above, was judged best in the auto equipment industry. It also placed second in the tractor and truck manufacturing field.

State Bar Foundation Elects Philip A. Hart

Philip A. Hart, 677 Westwood, has been elected president of the Michigan State Bar Foundation, to succeed former Oakland County Circuit Court Judge Glenn C. Gillespie of Pontiac.

The foundation is a non-profit corporation, founded in 1947 to advance the science of jurisprudence and improve the administration of justice.

Hart also is United States district attorney in Detroit and former state corporation commissioner.

A better deal because . . .

Every Chevrolet truck is factory-matched to the job—with the right power, the right capacity, right engine, transmission, springs, axle, and tires to do its work at the lowest possible cost.

Come in and see for yourself what a wonderful deal you'll get with a great new Chevrolet truck.

A better buy because . . .

THEY LIST FOR LESS
Production economies, possible because Chevrolet is the world's largest truck manufacturer, let Chevrolet trucks list for less than comparable models of any other make.

LOWER OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE COST

Valve-in-Head engine design; strong and sturdy Hypoid rear axle; Flex-Mounted cabs; rigid, channel-type frames; single-unit rear axle housings; Unit-Design bodies and many, many other features reduce costs and increase the life of your Chevrolet Advance-Design trucks.

TRADITIONALLY HIGHER TRADE-IN

Chevrolet trucks keep their value longer—proof of the greater value built into Chevrolet trucks and a wonderful plus at trade-in time.

Five Students Attend State Study Meetings

Liz Hervey, June Akers, Carol Lawrence, Jim Cahill and Akers Puzarski of Troy Township 'Y' Coed Club will be among the students attending the Michigan Hi-Y pre-legislative study meetings at Wayne University, Saturday, Nov. 22.

This meeting will be under the direction of Dr. Walter S. Ryder of Central Michigan College of Education and Mr. Walter Van Hise, Metropolitan Detroit Hi-Y Secretary.

Purpose of the study group is to teach the students how to write accurate and intelligent bills for the mock legislature to be held in the capitol building at Lansing, December 5 and 6.

Four students from this area will serve as representatives and senators for the two days. Supervising the work of the group will be Edwin P. Kibbert, Secretary of the Birmingham YMCA.

Travelogue, Science In YMCA Program

Beautiful scenic views of northern Saskatchewan plus expert advice for fishermen on how to catch fish, trout, and Arctic Grayling are featured in the travelogue movies to be shown at the YMCA House Friday afternoon, Nov. 21.

A scientific film entitled "The Story of Time" and a Laurel and Hardy comedy will round out the program. Boys and girls are invited to enjoy these showings which are a part of the Friday program of the Birmingham YMCA.

YMCA Ping Pong Team Still Even

Members of the Birmingham YMCA table tennis team, again broke even in their regular Thursday night competition in the Oakland County Table Tennis League.

They tied Steward Construction Company of Pontiac, 3 matches to 3.

Ken Lindsay of Birmingham won his No. 2 singles contest and Bob Frantz and Pat Starling teamed together to defeat their opponents' mixed doubles team.

In other matches Bob Frantz and Al Jenks lost closely fought matches in No. 1 and No. 3 singles, respectively. Allen Hamilton and Fred Rowe teamed together in men's doubles.

The team especially needs women players. Men and women players who are interested in joining the Birmingham YMCA, let a member for weekly league competition or for weekly practice should come to the meeting or contact the Birmingham YMCA for practice on Thursday, November 19 at 7 p.m. The team practices and plays in the league each Thursday night.

Y To Organize Basketball Teams

A meeting for all young men interested in playing basketball in a city league or with the Birmingham YMCA varsity is being called for Monday, Nov. 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the lounge of the 'Y' House.

If a four team league can be organized the 'Y' will start its sixth year of basketball for young men. Interested players should come to the meeting or contact the YMCA by telephone. Practice sessions will be on Wednesdays and Thursdays with play starting December 4.
