

The Michigan hunter who ASKS THE FARMER FIRST not only is practicing first order decency but he is doing his proper bit to encourage a welcome for his fellow sportsman. That it is actually unlawful to hunt on private property without owner permission is emphasized by the conservation department on the new hunting licenses.

Detroit Workshop Draws Y Leaders

William Gordon, Tom Ward, Don Gault, Edwin P. Kirkling and Lynn Russell will represent Birmingham YMCA at the Detroit Centennial Membership Workshop Saturday, Nov. 22 at the Rackham Building.

The more than 200 men who will be in attendance will be concerned with "Developing A Better Informed and More Responsible Membership."

The keynote speaker will be Paul V. Barrett of Wooster College in Ohio. Other men on the program include Clarence Johnson, coach of the U.S.A. Olympic Weight Lifting Team; Russell Rymer of the National Council of the Y; C. C. Robbins of Chicago, Illinois; Fred Noyes of the Jam Handy Company; and Ellis H. Sprunger, Executive Secretary of Michigan State YMCA.

Everyone will use a work book designed to tell a better story of the YMCA through enrollment procedures, public relations, and program.

YMCA Set To Sell Christmas Trees

William Roberts, chairman of the Birmingham YMCA Christmas Tree sales committee, announced that the local "Y" will sell Scotch Pine, Balsam, and Spruce trees starting December 2. The large Christmas Tree lot will be located in back of and to the west of the present "Y" building.

The hours for selling will be from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily to December 24 except on Sunday which will be from noon until midnight.

The sales will raise funds for its new permanent building and for work with boys and girls. Parents may leave small children in "Y" house while selecting a tree.

BIRMINGHAM BUSINESS BRIEFS

Real Estate Advertising Wins National Citation

National recognition has been granted Snyder, Kinney and Bennett, Inc., Birmingham real estate brokers, for their business building ideas presented through display advertising.

At the 45th annual convention of the National Association of Real Estate Brokers held last week at Miami Beach, a certificate of award was presented to the local firm.

Attends Annual Paint Convention

CHICAGO—Jack R. Winfield, Warfield Paint Co., 408 N. Woodward St., was among the nation's leading retailers and manufacturers who attended the annual convention of the Retail Paint and Wallpaper Distributors of America, Inc., held at the Hotel Sherman, Nov. 12-15. Among the features of the convention were previews of the new wall paper patterns and textures to be used for the next two years, trends in color and other features of home decoration.

Eugene Heszl Plans Investment Talks

Eugene Heszl, 812 Ridgedale, will open his series of lectures on sound investment on Nov. 24. Sponsored by the A. M. Kidder firm of investment securities, the series will be on four consecutive Monday nights at the Birmingham Community House.

Heszl, who has a B.A. degree from the University of Hamburg and an M.B.A. from Wayne, is an investment banker and a member of the University of Detroit faculty. In addition, he has published several books and economic studies.

During this series, illustrated by two motion picture films, he will show how to interpret a company report and how to wisely choose an investment. The meaning and workings of mutual funds and investment clubs also will be explained.

Heszl stressed that each lecture will be clear and brief, with a question and answer period to follow.

2 Crashes in Family

Oneida, N. Y.—Stopping his car on a country highway, Lewis Eaton, Sr. of Knoxboro, had the unpleasant experience of having it crashed into—by his daughter, Bertha. A few minutes later a third car, driven by a son, Lewis Eaton, Jr., banged into the rear of Miss Eaton's automobile. Eaton suffered chest injuries but the son and daughter were not hurt.

Haig and Patterson In Larger Quarters

To meet greatly increased demand for visual aids for sales and service training, Haig and Patterson has moved its Detroit offices and studios to much larger quarters, at 15 East Bethune, Detroit.

The new facilities include one of the nation's largest studios devoted to production of talking slideshows, complete art department, conference and projection rooms, and offices for a complete writing and creative staff.

"Our new facilities," says George Brusch, president, who lives at 948 Oakland, Birmingham, "insure fast and economical production of sound slideshows, TV shorts, motion pictures, easel charts, slides and visual cast transparencies. Our service is complete, from idea and script to finished production!"

Several in Area Cited by Art Show

Lindsey Decker, East Lansing sculptor and winner of the Cranbrook academy of art purchase prize for his metal sculpture, "Shrike," will open the "Meet Your Artist" series on Sunday, Nov. 23 at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The four sessions will be in connection with the Michigan artists' exhibition showing through Dec. 21. Each group will meet at 4 p.m.

William McVey of Bloomfield Hills, winner of the Henry T. Evatt prize for his sculpture, "Joseph," will be featured at the Dec. 14 program.

Besides Decker and McVey, winners from this area in the current show include Zoltan Sepehy, winner of the Anthony and Minerva

Malullo prize for his painting "Circus Colors," and Ben M. Furuta of Franklin for his water color, "Wash Day."

$145 From Lead Pot

Stafford, England—A Staffordshire worker stared amazed at the cauldron of molten lead he was stirring—wads of money were rising through the bubbles. He managed to snatch 52 one-pound notes ($145.00) from the seething metal. Evidently, the handle had been hidden in a bag of lead scrap which had been sent to the smelter for re-use.

The Beauty of NATURAL LEATHER

... is utilized to its most beautiful advantage in this finer custom-made luggage by ACE. Genuine CALIFORNIA SADDLE LEATHER, strongest and loveliest of natural leathers. Tanned in the same slow way the Early Californians' magnificent golden russet saddles were tanned. Each hide is cured two months in oak bark "liquor" to give it remarkable strength and a beautiful sheen. CALIFORNIA SADDLE LEATHER'S golden surface darkens gracefully, grows more beautiful with age like a Meerschaum Pipe.

ACE fine detailing with saddle stitching, custom handles, solid brass hardware and superior linings make these the perfect luggage gift.
