Mr. and Mrs. Bob Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman McGraw, Mr. and Mrs. William Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. William Bellmore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blair joined the Messners for cocktails and a buffet supper. Later in the evening they played pallor games.

EN ROUTE TO the tennis courts at the Coral Beach Club, Paget, Bermuda, are honeymooners Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Austin. Snow wedding took place November 1 at the First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Austin is the former Joan Gove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gove of Mohegan road.

Grinnell Award Winner Presented by Music Guild

Appearing under the auspices of the Cranbrook Music Guild last evening were two young artists, one of them a winner of the Grinnell Foundation award.

Emily Cundari and Joann Freeman were presented in recital at 8:30 last evening at Cranbrook House.

Miss Cundari, Marygrove College student and a Detroit resident, is recent winner of the Grinnell Foundation Operatic Scholarship Award. In the finals of the competition, she was the unanimous choice of five distinguished conductors.

Her program consisted of works of Schubert, Brahms and Mozart.

MISS FREEMAN is a graduate of Vassar College where she won a three year award for graduate study at the Juilliard School of Music. Her Juilliard tutor was Carl Friedberg, the only living pupil of Clara Schumann and Brahms.

Miss Freeman received her master's degree in music at the Juilliard School and, at the same time, received her master's degree in philosophy at Columbia University. She has been a pupil of Mischa Kottler. Miss Freeman is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Michael Freeman of Wellesley Drive, Palmer Woods.

IN PRESENTING Miss Cundari, the Cranbrook Music Guild is offering immediate recognition in a professional capacity of a Grinnell Foundation winner. In presenting Miss Freeman, the Guild is eager to show recognition of unusual youthful talent.
