Even Heat For Hill

Birmingham Board of Education members have approved the installation of Johnson Service Temperature Regulation in the Hill school at a cost close to $4,000. Superintendent Dwight B. Ireland reported that regulation of temperatures in each room would save fuel in heating the building.

Obituary Notices

Southfield Infantryman Killed in Korean Action

Pvt. Ronald B. Dunham Jr., 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald B. Dunham of 20100 Inkster, has been reported killed in action in Korea only a week prior to his death.

A native of Southfield township, he attended elementary schools there and Farmington high school. He was inducted into the army about a year ago and received basic training at Camp Breckenridge, Ky. He was a member of the 145th Inf. Reg. of the 85th Inf. Div.

RAYMOND B. HALL, 59, of 32394 Arlington, died Friday in St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Pontiac after a short illness. He came to Birmingham five years ago and was district manager for the Monroe Calculating Machine company's Detroit office.

He was a member of the Birmingham Country club, Elks and the Optimist club. Besides his widow Elizabeth, he is survived by two sons, Robert and Stephen and a daughter Sandra, all at home.

Services were Sunday afternoon at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Company. Burial was in Moline, Ill.

ROBERT O. BALL, 52, of 1500 Fairway, died suddenly Friday evening.

A native of New Jersey, he was born Sept. 6, 1900, and came to Birmingham 16 years ago from Detroit.

He attended Cornell university and was a member of Alpha Sigma Phi. Mr. Ball was also a member of Christ Church Cranbrook and very active in its affairs.

He is survived by his widow, the former Dorothy Howland; a daughter, Mrs. Bruce Hance, his mother, Mrs. Frederick A. Ball and three brothers, Jonathan M., Thomas and Laurence, all of Birmingham. Services were held Monday afternoon in Christ Church Cranbrook under the direction of Bell Chapel, William R. Hamilton company.

Burial was in White Chapel cemetery.

MRS. ALEXANDER GLOWACKI, 39, of 1905 Rochester road, Troy township, died suddenly last Friday at the Ardmore hospital in Ferndale.

Besides her husband she is survived by three children, Thomas and an infant son and a daughter Suzanne, at home; her mother, Mrs. Evelyn Van Lehn and two sisters, Mrs. Grace Morgan and Mrs. Victoria Monahan.

Rosary services were at the Spiller-Framer funeral home in Clawson Sunday evening. Prayer services there Monday morning were followed by mass at the Guardian Angel church with burial in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Detroit.

He was a member of the Metropolitan club, Spirit 9 and a former member of the Birmingham fire department volunteer division.

Besides his widow he is survived by two children, James Clifford Jr. and Judith Ann, both at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bingham, a brother Lawrence Bingham, a sister Mrs. Roy Garside, all of Birmingham. Two other sisters, Mrs. Joseph Gravin of Farmington and Mrs. Lucille Lucas of Royal Oak, also survive.

Services were from the Manley Bailey funeral home Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. W. Glenn Harris, Ph.D., of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Burial was in Franklin cemetery.

MRS. ERICH O. KURTH, 52, died suddenly at her home, 156 North Worth, on Nov. 19.

She was born in Berlin, Germany, on Jan. 15, 1900, and came to Detroit in 1913. She was married to Erich O. Kurth on April 20, 1919 in Royal Oak.

Mrs. Kurth was a member of the Birmingham Business Women's club, Redeemer Lutheran church and its Ladies Missionary society. Besides her husband she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Robert Howard of Oak Park, Mrs. William MacDonald of Encinitas, Calif., and Miss Trudy Kurth at home; her mother, Mrs. Helmut Schmidt of Birmingham and four grandchildren.

The Rev. Theodore Wugazer of Redeemer Lutheran church officiated at services at the Manley Bailey funeral home Saturday afternoon. Burial was in White Chapel cemetery.

J. CLIFFORD BINGHAM, 40, of 731 Bird, died at his home on Nov. 23, following a long illness.

Born in Southfield township on April 6, 1912, he had spent most of his life in this area, and attended the Birmingham public schools. He married Evelyn Chisum here on Oct. 4, 1938.

A former employee of Harold Turner, Inc., Mr. Bingham was with the Crane company at the time of his death.

He was a member of the Metropolitan club, Spirit 9 and a former member of the Birmingham fire department volunteer division.

Besides his widow he is survived by two children, James Clifford Jr. and Judith Ann, both at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bingham, a brother Lawrence Bingham, a sister Mrs. Roy Garside, all of Birmingham.
