TOP-O'-THE-HILL

You'll like this home on the crest of a hill. An apple orchard provides you with lovely apple blossoms in Springtime—juicy, luscious apples for your Fall harvest. A wishing well adds a picturesque touch. Good-sized rooms promise you a comfortable way of life.

Studio living room, fireplace, bookshelves. Glazed Porch. The kitchen supplies ample space for a breakfast table. 1st floor bedroom, tile bath. 2 bedrooms, tile bath up. Small finished room in the basement would serve ideally as an office, playroom, or what have you.

Approximately two acres of "romping" land for the children.

$24,500.00 is the price. Appointments arranged to suit your convenience.

FRANKLIN NEWS

By ANGELA DADSON

Mayfair 6-2441

The annual Christmas dance, sponsored by the Woodcreek Farms Civic association, will be held at the Western Golf and Country club on Friday, Dec. 12. This semi-formal affair will start at 9:30 p.m. Tickets may be had from Richard Norwalk or Dr. Clare Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barr, Meadowdale lane, will have 25 relatives from Ann Arbor, Monroe, Farmington and Davison with them for Thanksgiving. Son Bradford is home from the University of Michigan for the holiday.

John Ziegelbauer, home from Michigan State for Thanksgiving, has with him as houseguests Miss Marilyn Potter of Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Young and daughters Joy and Heidi will spend the holiday with Young's father at Ypsilanti.

Miss Elsie Barr was hostess last Friday evening at her home on Meadowdale lane to the intermediate piano students of Dorothy Brown, of Detroit, and their parents. The students presented their monthly musicale. Among them were Sharon Byers, also of Franklin, the rest of the group being Detroiters.

Mrs. Carson Bingham and Mrs. Sherman Le Messurier of Birmingham were co-hostesses at the Bingham home last Friday at a shower for bride-elect Barbara Stecker, of Birmingham. Guests were Mrs. Anita Stecker, Mrs. W. L. Stecker, Mrs. Fred Rollins, Mrs. T. J. LeMessurier, Mrs. J. F. Hunt, Mrs. Eric Sommer, Mrs. Norman Gustafson, Mrs. James Brien, Misses Marjorie Shepard, Peggy Phillips and Pat Sterling, all of Birmingham, and Miss Joy Stewart of Hillsdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ziegelbauer, Franklin road, spent last week in Chicago at the convention of the national paint, varnish, lacquer and production club.

The James Robinsons of Meadowdale lane left Franklin on November 8 for a three week vacation in Georgia. Daughter Betsy flew down from Washington, D. C., to join them in Atlanta. Son John drove from Fort Benning, where he is stationed. The family vacationed at Sea Island and visited relatives in the southern part of the state.

Lee Carkner and Cindy Scott, both of Bingham road, celebrated their 13th birthdays last Saturday night with a party at the Roy Carkner home. They were hostesses to 70 school and neighborhood friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Whiting of Wing Lake road announce the birth of a daughter, Colleen Anne, on Nov. 18.

Peter Hershey has enlisted in the Air Force. He is in the pre-flight training squadron at the Lackland air force base at San Antonio, Texas. Pete was in his junior year at Kansas university when he enlisted.

Officers of St. Anne's guild for the coming year are Mrs. Anthony Foley, chairman; Mrs. James McGuire, co-chairman; Mrs. Phil Van Dyke, secretary; Mrs. Aloysius Fuhrman, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Joseph Tusly, treasurer. On the ways and means committee are Mrs. Jessie Spencer, chairman, Mrs. E. Doherty and Mrs. S. Kowalski. Other chairmen are Mrs. Leo Burr, house; Mrs. Carson Bingham, assisted by Mrs. Walter Kasten and Mrs. Richard Horst, program; Mrs. Otto Schubert, publicity; Mrs. Harold Longeway, membership; Mrs. Patrick Monaghan, assisted by Mrs. John Whitney and Mrs. Charles Holzen, hospitality and spiritual.
