BARNUM JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

Barnum's magazine sale ended Monday, November 17, with total sales of $464.00. Monday's winner of the treasure chest prize was Sharon Eagen. The high salesman of the day was Sue Rogers with Linda Marean in second place. Thursday of last week it was announced that Kemp Hogan was high salesman of the entire sale with $190.00. Linda Marean came in second with $180.00. Both students received trophy awards. Jim Fry received a bicycle.

It was announced before the finish of the sale the high homeroom in sales for the entire seven days plus the high homeroom of the last day along, would receive tickets to the Birmingham theater. It turned out that both titles were taken by homeroom 214 so each salesman of 214 received two theater tickets. A big theater party will be held for them soon.

The Service club this year is composed of boys and girls who want to keep the halls in order. Anyone can join the Service Club. Children stand at the doors to keep students from entering the building during the lunch hour. Other service club members stand in the halls so that students don't walk through the halls without hall permits during lunch hour.

The children in the Service Club are as follows: Jon Meulenbeag, Tom Blum, Warren Risk, Harold Chappell, Larry Nickel, Bill Haas, Harvey Selmer, George Kinna, Ronald Franklin, Paul Turner, Robert Engelhart, Eddie Yingling, Carla Toster, Jim Serber, Bob Tracey, Jim Chapman, John Cooper, Colin Stearns, George Johnson, Ken Parrish and Sally Satterthwaite.

On December 9, Miss Majel Bretherton will take 31 students to the Detroit Concert.

Mrs. Edith Heas, who went to Western Michigan College in Kalamazoo and was graduated in 1944. Mrs. Vargo taught in Hastings Junior High until her marriage to Doctor Arthur Vargo in June 1952. She began teaching in the Language Arts department at Barnum this fall.

THE PUPILS of Miss Dolores Gillette's sewing class saw a movie on November 17, entitled, "Susie Makes a Dress". It contained information on fabric choice, styles for body figures, how to prepare material for cutting, pattern layout, and many steps in sewing.

Fifty-two boys reported to eighth grade basketball practice Monday after school. There are no games scheduled yet. Seventh grade practice will start next Monday, November 24 in the afternoon.

A small dance orchestra is now being organized. The group hopes to be ready to play for the first show of the Christmas Party. Membership so far includes Don Thacker, piano; Tom Bradley and Ronnie Jackson, saxophones; Dick Hubbard and Gerry Millan, cornets, and Bill Garter, drums.

A SOCIAL Studies movie entitled "Winning Our Independence" was shown to the eighth grade students Wednesday, Nov. 19. It took place in Virginia about 1760. It showed how England put taxes and other restrictions on the colonies and how the colonies decided to fight back. It also showed some scenes of wars with the British which led up to the Revolutionary War. Patrick Henry quoted his famous words "Give me liberty, or give me death!"

Cheerleaders Hold Pep Rally At BHS

Three University of Michigan cheerleaders and their physical education director, Nert Lokin, presented an assembly and pep rally with Birmingham cheerleaders this afternoon.

Every minute of the action-packed pep meeting included either stunts on the trampoline and trampole or stirring yells in preparation for tomorrow's game with Royal Oak.

This enjoyable assembly took the place of the traditional movie and pep rally formerly held at the Birmingham theater.

News copy submitted early necessarily is given preference over late items. So the "Early Bird" usually gets the space.
