MRS. THEODORE LEON PETERSON

Peterson-Pasher Nuptials Are Held By Candlelight

Candlelight illumined the altar of St. James Episcopal Church Saturday evening when Joan Pasher and Theodore Leon Peterson stood before the Rev. Harold Towne to repeat their marriage vows.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vedal V. Pasher of South Bates street, chose a gown of snowy white double-thread Chantilly lace. A deep yoke of illusion was applied to a fitted lace bodice and long sleeves finished in points over the hands.

Her full skirt was worn, over two shirred net petticoats that formed a small court sweep. Her fingertip illusion veil was caught by a tiny half calot of lace and seed pearls.

The bridal bouquet was composed of white stephanotis, white orchids and variegated foliage.

IN SCARLET RED gowns of faille taffeta were the matron, Mrs. T. Curtis McKenzie, and bridesmaids Mrs. James Main of Dallas, Texas; Nancy Bird, Mrs. Bruce Hance, Jane McKenzie and Mrs. Carl T. Blauman.

Highlighting their costumes were portrait necklines offset with elbow-length sleeves and fitted bodices that buttoned down the front. Their waitz-length skirts were worn over crinoline petticoats, and they had icy headpieces across the crowns of their heads. The attendants carried red glorioiosa lilies.

THE GROOM is the son of Mrs. Herbert N. Peterson of Herwyn, Ill., and the late Mr. Peterson.

He asked T. Curtis McKenzie to be his best man, and Lyman Brown of La Grange, Ill.; Raymond Jared, William Yaroch, Jack McKenzie and Arthur Burke to usher. Mrs. Pasher was gowned in star sapphire silk taffeta with matching accessories. Mrs. Peterson wore champagne satin brocade with matching accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

A reception at Red Run Golf Club followed the nuptials. Among those present were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Rudolf Schlosser of Wilmette, Ill., and Miss Frances Palmer of Chicago.

On their departure for a Fort Lauderdale honeymoon, the bride changed to a blue faille suit dress with pink accessories.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
