WALNUT LAKE NEWS
 By LOUISE ROBERTS
 MAYfair 6-3743

The Walnut Lake Women's club will meet on Nov. 10 at West Bloomfield Township Hall for a social evening.

The October meeting of the In-Lake League of Women Voters was a dinner luncheon at West Bloomfield Township Hall. Dr. John Gyr, associate director of the Institute of Social Research, University of Michigan, and Mrs. Renais Lickert, past state president of LWV, led a discussion on membership responsibilities in organized groups. Among those attending were Mrs. Feryl Holliday, Mrs. C. M. Heller, Mrs. Don Brown, Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martin, Mrs. Graham Overgard and Mrs. Philip Eustice.

Attending the PTA Council meeting in Birmingham Oct. 27 were Mrs. C. M. Heller, Edson Stevens and James B. Roberts.

Monthly meeting of the PTA board was held Oct. 28 at the home of Mrs. Reginald Smith. Present were Mrs. Roland Walton, Mrs. George Osterbeck, Miss Nola Peasley, Miss Marjorie Votey, Mrs. C. M. Heller, Mrs. Don Brown, Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens, Frank Sweet, Keith Symon and James B. Roberts.

Brownie Troop 325, at their last meeting before Halloween, made false faces from paper plates and bobbed for apples. Lorene Graber brought the nibbles. Mrs. Reginald Smith, co-leader, was assisted by Mrs. Robert Eison.

The fifth grade Girl Scout troop had a Halloween meeting. Peggy Sloat, Carmen Sutton and Karen Harper provided refreshments and Karen Overgard and Karen Crafty left games outdoors.

After a short business meeting Girl Scout Troop 380 divided into two groups, one of which played football. The girls in the other group made tin can stoves and buddy burners to be used for cookouts in the future. Sharon Pavelka laid a trail as part of her tenderfoot requirements.

The Cub Scout pack committee met on Oct. 28 at the home of Dick McKay. Plans were made for the Cub's get-out-the-vote campaign. The Pack committee is Cubmaster, Phil Eustice; treasurer, Bob Sutton; committee chairmen, Dick McKay, Edson Stevens, Mrs. John Palmer, Mrs. Ed Sinto, Mrs. Phil Eustice, Mrs. Weber Young, Mrs. Vernon Kirby, Mrs. William Noth, Mrs. Robert Myers and Mrs. E. K. Sechrist and den leaders, Bill Unsworth, George Osterbeck, Vincent Vincent, Alain and Ed Sinto. Den mothers meet with the boys each week; den dads take them on occasional outings.

On Oct. 25 a Halloween party for In-Lake Road children was given by Mrs. Kenneth Kirby at the home of her sister, Mrs. Marlin Joritz. Children who enjoyed bobbing for apples and other Halloween games were Brian, Donny and Johnny Morris, Ellen, Penny and Cleve King, Peggy and Bobby Hemmings, Barbara and Marilynn Shank, Jimmy and Bonny Van Sickle, Jimmy, Judy and Kenny Kirby and Gordon, Dale and Mary Joritz.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bertram left on Oct. 27 for Florida, going first to Miami and then to Sarasota. Later they will return to Miami to spend the winter.

A welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Myers and children Linda and Larry. Former Detroiters, they have been living in their new home on Middlebelt Road since September. Myers is sales engineer and junior partner of the Kerr Machinery Co. Mrs. Myers is already a Cub den mother.

A son, James Charles, was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Feeley of Sunnyside drive, on Oct. 28. Girl Scout Troop 380 divided into two groups, one of which played football. The girls in the other group made tin can stoves and buddy burners to be used for cookouts in the future. Sharon Pavelka laid a trail as part of her tenderfoot requirements.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fletcher, who have sold their home on Putnam Drive, left this week for Lakeland, Fla., where they will make their home.

Although the party was held at the club's clubhouse, its success was due to a number of organizations and individuals.

The next PTA meeting will be an open house on Nov. 10 at 8 o'clock. It will explain methods used in teaching arithmetic, with children participating. A ski will be put on by the defense and stamp committees. Following the program, refreshments will be open for parents to visit. Parents are urged to be prompt as the children will be participating first.

Kingswood Board Members Named

Election of officers and new members of the Kingswood School Cranbrook board of directors at its annual meeting has been announced by Miss Marion E. Goodale, headmistress of Kingswood.

Graham John Graham, Bloomfield Hills, succeeded from vice-chairman of the board, of which he has been a member since 1947. He succeeds Mrs. Neil C. McMath, chairman the past two years.

Mrs. James A. Rice, Flint, also a member for five years, was made vice-chairman. Mrs. John W. Tucker, Harbor Beach, and D. Burt R. Shurly, Jr., Birmingham, were re-elected secretary and treasurer, respectively.

New members of the board are William B. Hartman, Pontiac, and William H. Baldwin, Birmingham. They were elected to fill vacancies occasioned by the death of John W. Watling, who had been a member of the board since the school was organized in 1930, and the retirement of Edwin J. Angerson, both of Bloomfield Hills.

Friday Night Dance
 At Bonnie Brook C. C.

The Dance Club will hold their first dance in a series of five at Bonnie Brook Country Club Friday evening.

Make the arrangements were a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stoberg, Mr. and Mrs. William Burgum, Mr. and Mrs. Newell McQueen, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Sitta and Mr. and Mrs. John Altman.

At their den meeting on Oct. 20, the Den 3 played games, sang the hymns and carved pumpkins. Fred Hamilton served the nibbles, according to Brian Morris, keeper of the Bookies. On the previous Saturday this den had a party at Kensington Park, where they followed one of the nature trails. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sinto, den dad and den mother.

Den 2 held a flag ceremony and the boys finished the "hot-rod" they started the week before. Pat Vaska brought the nibs, tarts with pumpkin faces.

Jimmy Alain, keeper of the Bookies, reports that at their den meeting the boys carved faces on pumpkins. Jimmy brought the nibs.

Cubs of Den 4 made their plans for the get-out-the-vote campaign on Saturday. Each boy had his own pumpkin to carve a face on and to take home.

Keeper of the Bookies for Den 5, Bobby Allen, reports that Cub's of his den bobbed for apples and cut faces on pumpkins. Bobby brought the nibs.

About 150 children attended the successful community Halloween party. Prize winners for costumes were as follows:

Two to four age group—prettiest costume, Susan Beaudry; scarier, Keith Hamilton; funniest, Anita Gibson.

Four to seven, prettiest, Joyce Smith; funniest, Lynn Gibson; scarier, Larry Griggs.

Eight to ten, prettiest, Peggy Sloat; scarier, Wayne Hoffman; funniest, Johnny Caldwell.

Ten and over age, prettiest, they will first go to Chicago for a visit with their son Ronald and his family.

A farewell luncheon for Mrs. Fletcher was given by Mrs. Kane on Oct. 29 at her home on Langham. Joining Mrs. Kane in presenting Mrs. Fletcher with a going-away gift were Mrs. Emmet Delaney, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Harry Hammann, Mrs. Ford Holliday, Mrs. Thomas Snyder, Mrs. Parker Rockwell, Mrs. Perry Graber, Mrs. Rose Bales, Mrs. John Parkins and Mrs. William Sloat.

Henry Jokela spent a few days pleasant hunting near Sebewaing with friends from Detroit. Following his return the Jokela entertained 14 relatives from Detroit at a pleasant dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Rockwell of Putnam drive have been having as their guest Mrs. Rockwell's sister, Mrs. Ellsworth Hammes, of Interlochen. Last Friday they attended a party celebrating the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence White, of Orem, Utah. Mrs. White was formerly the kindergarten teacher at Walnut Lake school.

A tea and showing of gift items from the Women's club bazaar was held Oct. 29 at the home of Mrs. Henry Jokela.

Louisa Roberts spent last weekend at Lakewood, Ohio, where she attended a regional conference of American Unitarian Youth.

Edson Stevens, Jr., spent Halloween at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simons in Royal Oak. At the same time his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Stevens, attended a barn dance at Clan Lyle Farm.
