Captain, Bride Make Home At Louisiana Base

Making their home in Shreveport, La., are Capt. and Mrs. Thomas M. Beebe. The couple honeymooned at "Farm on the Hill," Swiftwater, Pa., after their October 4 nuptials in the Ferndale Methodist Church.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Beebe of West Brown street, recently returned from overseas service with the Air Force. He is now stationed at Barksdale Air Force Base in Shreveport.

THE BRIDE, the former Evelyn Maxine Vollmer, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Vollmer of Ferndale.

She wore a ballerina gown of white net with a lace bolero jacket, matching lace cap and fingertip veil. The bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis and a white orchid.

Mrs. John W. Gellies of Royal Oak was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a turquoise ballerina gown of net. Salmon-colored roses in her hair matched her bouquet.

In a similar pale mauve dress was bridesmaid Mrs. Walter Ketter of Detroit. Pale pink roses were her flowers. Jane Kappel of Detroit wore a turquoise ballerina gown accented with pink roses.

STUART BEEBE, who recently arrived from naval duty in Japan, was his brother's best man. Serving were another brother, Roger, and a cousin, David Beebe of Athensville, N. C.

A reception followed the ceremony in the social room of the church. Out-of-town guests included the groom's grandmother, Mrs. A. C. Veit who came from Mt. Pleasant, the bride's sister, Mrs. Anthony of Silver Spring, Md.

Also present were Mrs. John Randall of Albion, and Norma Spafford of Chicago, Ill.

Madrigal Singers Slate Program For Musicales Monthly Meeting

The Madrigal Singers, in a traditional Elizabethan setting, will present a program of sixteenth and seventeenth century a cappella vocal music for the Birmingham Musicales at their November 13 meeting.

The program will be held at 2 p.m. at the Community House.

Sharing the spotlight will be Joseph Kertesz, concert violinist, who will play the Henry Eccles Sonata for violin, the Spanish Dance No. 2 by Granados, and the Waltz in A Major, by Brahms. He will be accompanied by his wife, Kertesz, formerly of the Bucharest Symphony, has concentrated extensively throughout Michigan. At the Summer Concert Series at Bayview, he was a member of the string quartette.

At present Kertesz is playing with the Detroit Chamber Music Workshop and is orchestra director at Central High School in Detroit.

THE ENTIRE PERSONNEL of the Madrigal group are members of the Birmingham Musicales and have scheduled several professional engagements this season.

They will present a program at the November 7th convention of the Southeastern district of Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, being held at the Community House.

Film Shown To Poptleton PTA

"The Fight for Better Schools" was the film shown last evening before members of the Poptleton school PTA when they convened for their regular monthly meeting.

Alex Tunstall, past PTA president, led the discussion following the film. Also on the program were piano selections by Mrs. Minoru Yamasaki. Refreshments were served.

Plans are now completed for the Poptleton annual school fair, to be held Saturday, November 8, at the school. Attractions will include a supper to be served by the room mothers.

Mrs. Carel Ferrier is chairman of the event.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
