

Shaped suit: the fleece jacket is tweed-lined to match the skirt.

85.00

EXTRA SPECIAL!

An impressive group of SUITS at special low prices for the budget minded. Be sure to see these!

SUITS have a new SHAPE

and the winter suit comes into its own

This season's suit fashions make exciting news. For one thing, they're warm enough to wear well into winter . . . done in rich-textured wools, tweeds and fleeces. Jackets are brief and boxy, or shaped along new curves; worn over slender skirts. Come and see our many variations on the theme . . . priced from $35.00.

Where Quality Fashions and Sound Values Keep Steady Company

NEWS FROM

Southeast of Birmingham

By JANE STAGG
Lincoln 4-0790

The Samoset avenue card club met last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Mason, Mrs. S. Schneider, Mrs. Frank Doemer, Mrs. Harold Fineman, Mrs. Gerald McGowan, Mrs. Robert Ballenger and Mrs. Don Croke enjoyed the evening of card playing followed by refreshments.

Friday evening the Elmwood avenue club met at the home of Mrs. Donald Cederholm. Before starting the card games, Mrs. Richard Strohm, Mrs. Nick Preda, Mrs. Cyril Maxwell, Mrs. Henry Reinhold, Mrs. Charles Colville, Mrs. Robert Browning, Mrs. George O'Brien, Mrs. Francis Kelly, Mrs. John Stewart and Mrs. Harry Fritzam discussed charitable projects for the year.

Last Saturday 10 girls gathered at the home of the Joe Geigers on Hunter avenue to celebrate Mary Louise Geiger's eighth birthday. Before going to the movie matinee they had ice cream and cupcakes and entered two contests. One contest was to memorize the contents of a grab bag and the other to dress lollipop dolls in crepe paper gowns. Mrs. Geiger reports that the lollipop dolls were very attractive. Barbara Hodgson, Peggy Spurlock, Janice Koller, Marilyn and Marcia Hordnicki, Jill Atkinson, Cynthia Hall, Pat Wlodek, Diane Urban and Paulette Geiger were present.

The Richard D. Ernst, of Elmwood avenue and the R. L. Jessups went to Lansing to see Michigan State play Texas. After the game they went to the Gamma Phi Beta house. Mrs. Ernst was a member of this sorority at Michigan State. Earlier in the season they went to Ann Arbor to see the Michigan State game. Ernst's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ernst of Tyron, N. Carolina accompanied them to that game during their week's visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ceder, of Aberdey road, went to the home of the Frank Wisemans in Huntingdon Woods Friday night to play bridge with the W. M. MacLachans and Donald Treadwell of Detroit and Wyandotte. All the women are members of Delta Delta Delta.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fairchild of Robinwood avenue entertained Fairchild's aunt, Mrs. Frank Aberden, and her son, David, at dinner at Red Run Golf Club. Mrs. Aberden spent two days with the Fairchilds. Her home is in Pinckney.

Last week the S. Schneiders of Samsot brought their new daughter, Barbara Lee, home from the hospital. She was born Sept. 15. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Hopper, of Tonawanda, also have a new daughter, Terri Lee, born Sept. 12. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin S. Hurley, of Essex road, announce the birth of a son, Jeffrey John, on Oct. 2.

Mrs. Jessie Birchard, of Groveland avenue, is at home with her new son, Donald Martin, born Oct. 6. Her mother, Mrs. Frances Jarrot, of Avon, Minnesota is visiting the family for a few weeks.

Last Wednesday evening at the Royal Oak Garden Club's arrangement and specimen show in the Royal Oak high school Mrs. Ralph W. Reese, received an award for an arrangement of dahlias, peony foliage and iris greens in a peony tray container. She is the first to receive the club's 20th anniversary cup. All the material was grown by Mrs. Reese at her home on Alumni hall of the University of Michigan. Mrs. Reese considers herself a novice at this work but expects to do more with flowers.

Saturday evening the committee which is arranging the Republican rally to be held at the Royal Oak high school the evening of Oct. 30 met at the home of Kathryn Hopkins on Olivia to make their plans.

Style Show Reviewed

The results of their recent style show will be discussed at the October 23 business and social meeting of Gamma Phi Beta. Birmingham alumnae will gather at the home of Mrs. H. Everhardy, 1647 Washington boulevard, at eight o'clock Wednesday evening.

MR. AND MRS. PETER PETERSON
Wed 50 Years

Former Residents Marked 50th Anniversary Sunday

Former Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson of Milford, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a Sunday afternoon open house at the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Peterson, 1259 Cedar.

Natives of Ohio, the Petersons were married in Ithaca, Mich., on October 15, 1902, by the Rev. J. C. Cook. They came to Birmingham in 1917 and lived here until 1932 when they moved to Everett, Mich., and later to Milford.

However the Petersons still "think of Birmingham as our home."

and spent six months on the police force. He is a member of the Knights of Pythias and a charter member of the Birmingham Metropolitan club.

Out-of-town guests included three of the original wedding guests, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Peters of Alma and Mrs. Olive Johnson of Flint. Other guests came from Ohio, West Virginia, Everett and Ithaca, Michigan.

Fried Asparagus

Dip asparagus tips in a thick white sauce then roll in grated cheese. Set aside to cool. When the sauce has set, dip in slightly beaten eggs, and then in bread crumbs. Fry in deep fat.

WHILE WORKING in Birmingham, Mr. Peterson was a member of the volunteer fire department

A The velvet-trimmed Chesterfield, well adapted to the new and narrowing look in coats. 45.00

B Beloved classic, with an air of tailored elegance. Colorful fleece. SPECIAL at 55.00

C Short and sweet, our alpaca-lined storm coat in tweed, with fur collar. 25.00

D The fitted dress coat, in rich, nubby wool, with important fur touches. 110.

E Famous Crestknit tweeds, superbly tailored, styled for all-weather wearability. 59.95 our coat collection is at its peak . . . fashion-wise, value-wise, and so we say . . . .

OCTOBER IS COAT MONTH AT DAVIDSON'S

Now is the time to buy your winter coat: when you can choose from complete selections . . . when you can see the greatest variety of styles, and check dollar-for-dollar values on fresh, new, fashion-right merchandise. We are really excited about our current coat collection: fabrics are magnificent, silhouettes more flattering than ever . . . and Davidson's quality assures you of the utmost in warmth and wearability. Do pay us a visit, soon.

*EXTRA SPECIAL! An important group of COATS at value-plus prices for the budget-minded. To appreciate these, you must see them.

Where Quality Fashions and Sound Values Keep Steady Company

