OK Vote Machine Use

Birmingham city commissioners Monday night agreed to foot the cost of setting up a voting machine for demonstration purposes at Himeleloch's for the week prior to the November election at the request of the Birmingham League of Women Voters. The League is working with the Birmingham Kiwanis club to train new residents in the use of the machines.

Obituary Notices

MRS. CLARA ROSS SNOOK, 72, of 570 Aspen, was buried in White Chapel cemetery Monday afternoon following services at the Manley Bailey funeral home. The Rev. Robert Graham, assistant pastor of the first Presbyterian church officiated.

Mrs. Snook died at her home on Sept. 25 after a brief illness. She was born in Detroit on March 29, 1880, and on Sept. 1, 1904, was married in Dryden to the Rev. John H. Snook, who died several years ago.

She came to Birmingham from Highland Park in 1945, and became associated with the First Presbyterian church and its Missionary A unit. She was also active in the affairs of the Senior Activities group of the Community House.

Mrs. Snook is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Keith B. Hackett of Dearborn and Miss Helen A. Snook and Mrs. Lester R. Manges, both of Birmingham. Four grandchildren also survive.

MRS. BLANCHE A. BELL, 36, of 1332 South Bates, died Sept. 28 in Harper hospital, Detroit, after a long illness.

She was born in Altoona, Pa., on June 15, 1916, and was a member of St. James Episcopal church here.

She is survived by her husband, David W. Bell and a daughter, Sharon Lee, of Birmingham; her mother, Mrs. Fred Scott of Altoona; and these sisters and brothers.

Mrs. Nora Walton, Pontiac; Mrs. Florence DeCasper, Altoona; Fred Scott, Jr., and Thomas Scott of Altoona; N. M. Norman Scott of Royal Oak; Raymond Scott of St. Louis, Mo.; and John Scott of Pottstown, Pa.

HARRY S. LEE, 64, of 26880 Captain's Lane, Franklin, died suddenly Sept. 26, at his residence. He was born in Dayton, Ohio, on Oct. 2, 1887.

A resident of Franklin for the past eight years, he was the owner of the Cement Mill Equipment company in Detroit.

He was a member of the Detroit Athletic club; Plymouth Rock Lodge, F & A M, 47, and the Engineering society of Detroit.

His only survivor is a cousin, Mrs. Irene Dudgeon of Dayton, Ohio.

The Rev. Leslie A. Bechtel of Kirk-in-the-Hills Presbyterian church officiated at services Monday at the Bell chapel, William R. Hamilton company. Entombment was in Riverside cemetery in Plymouth.

MRS. EVELYN B. HIGH, 47, of Indian Rock Beach, Fla., died in St. Petersburg on Sept. 28.

She is survived by her husband, Walter W. High; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Busby of Pine Lake and a brother and three sisters, Mrs. George E. Adams of Chicago; Mrs. Herby McDonald, Mrs. Herbert Poppleton and George H. Busby, all of Birmingham.

To Build Your Child's Character Score..

- HONESTY
- HELPLEFULNESS
- SELF RELIANCE
- OBEDIENCE
- COURTESY

Actually, there is no score, however high, that will satisfy the ideals you have for your children, is there? Aren't you constantly on the alert to expose them to additional character building programs? The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and other youth organizations supported by your Torch Drive contributions supply the help that's needed to build the kind of citizens that America must have to face the future. Invest in your leaders of tomorrow through your generous gift to the 1952 Torch Drive.

You'll be depending on their character in the years ahead!
