He'd grow up better playing third base!

He's all alone in this big city. Time is heavy on his hands. He needs companions his own age—outlets for his young energy.

Sure, he's a good kid now, but tomorrow . . .

He can be an third base tomorrow, or in a swimming pool; he can even be having fun at a neighborhood center or hobby shop if . . .

If every man and woman in Detroit will only give him a chance!

Your pledges to the United Foundation 1952 Torch Drive give kids like him the wholesome outlets they need—youth groups where they'll learn good citizenship, physical fitness and character building.

Last year, your Torch Drive helped 44 organizations—like the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, the Y's, boys' clubs and children's homes. Your Torch Drive dollars provided each member of these groups with recreational and educational facilities and equipment. In all, 220,000 Detroit boys and girls benefited from your generosity.

So give generously to the Torch Drive. Don't pass this kid by.

150 CAMPAIGNS IN ONE! The United Foundation is a permanent non-profit corporation created to unite separate campaign appeals for health and community services into one annual drive. It includes the 128 United Community Services and 22 other health and service organizations.

Give once for all!

Girl Scouts Name Field Director

Mrs. James Abbott, president of the Birmingham District Association of Southern Oakland Girl Scouts, Inc., has announced the appointment of Miss Diane Richardson as field director for this community.

In this capacity, Miss Richardson will serve as advisor to the Birmingham district executive committee and will work directly with the Girl Scout Leaders and neighborhood chairmen. She will also direct Camp Narvin and work with the Area Troop and established camp committee.

MISS RICHARDSON did her undergraduate work at the University of Michigan and Wayne University, and from 1950 to 1952 did graduate work at the Wayne University School of Social Work.

During that time, she was associated with the St. Peter Claver Community House, Detroit, and Detroit Council of Campfire Girls. As a native Detroit, active in Girl Scouting through the Senior Program, with 21 years camping experience as camper, staff member, and Director, Miss Richardson comes to Birmingham well equipped to assist the ever-increasing number of girls and adults who are active in Girl Scouting.
