Friday Evening Bride In Gown of Mauve Tulle

A mauve nylon tulle gown was worn by Joan Stuart when she met Thomas Edward McDonnell, Jr., at the altar of Christ Church Cranbrook Friday evening.

The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt officiated at the seven o'clock ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Whyte Stuart of Brookdale road. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. McDonnell of Larclaw drive are the groom's parents.

THE BRIDAL gown was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves gathered into folds at the wrist. Her skirt was composed of diagonal tucks forming a short train.

A lighter mauve illusion net fingertip veil fell from a small cap studded with orange blossoms. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids with stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Mrs. George Hummel came from Rockford, Ill., to be her cousin's matron of honor. Bridesmaids included the groom's sister, Kay Mc-

The bride cut her wedding cake with a knife given by the groom's family, and tied with a white bow and tiny orchid mums on the handle.

When the couple left to catch a Mexico-bound plane, the new Mrs. McDonnell was wearing a dark wool suit of mauve and purple with a matching felt hat. The orchids from her bridal corsage were pinned to her lapel.

The couple will make their home on Winkleton drive on their return in three weeks.
