

Antique Show Entertaining In Full Swing

A sure harbinger of the fall social season is the annual Pety Hill Antique Show which is in session at the Community House.

Mrs. Robert Adreese of Glenngary road will entertain luncheon guests today before heading for the show. Also, luncheon before arriving at the Community House will be former state DAR board members who will be the guests of Mrs. C. W. Wacker at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Another Thursday luncheon will be hosted at Orchard Lake Country Club by Mrs. Robert F. Watt. Guest of honor will be Mrs. Harlan Hatcher, wife of the president of the University of Michigan.

ANTIQUE SHOW Entertaining

Friday will include a luncheon by Mrs. Harold R. Chapel. Among her guests will be Mrs. Alan Chapell and Mrs. Joseph Seal of Ypsilanti.

Mrs. S. Hopkins Hadley of Winter Park, Fla., and Mrs. Lillian Haas of Mountain Lake, N.Y., are visiting Mrs. Thomas E. McDonnell of Larchmont for a week, and will for a second year visit the show.

Los Angeles where he attended a conference of the International Association of Chiefs of Police of which he is past president. He has been state fire marshal, a member of the state safety commission, and a member ex-officio of the state board of aeronautics.

He has served as moderator in the settlement of labor disputes and has citations from the AFL and CIO.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—the society editor about them.

DONALD S. LEONARD

Donald S. Leonard To Speak At October 8 AAUW Luncheon

Donald S. Leonard, former state police commissioner and newly-appointed Detroit police commissioner, will address the Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women at their Wednesday, October 8, luncheon meeting.

The luncheon is slated for 12:45 p.m. at the Community House, Mrs. B. Laurimore will preside in the absence of AAUW president, Mrs. Kenneth Swartwood.

The speaker will be introduced by Mrs. Robert Kohr, legislative chairman.

LEONARD HAS chosen "What Do We Need in Legislation in Michigan" for his topic. The AAUW is particularly interested in legislation preventing the distribution of drugs to minors, encouraging the development of a turnpike and road system, regulations cutting down traffic accidents, and legislation concerning state institutions.

Donald S. Leonard is a native Detroit, and received his A.B., L.L.B. and L.L.D. degrees from Wayne University. He has done graduate work at the University of Michigan.

He is a member of the American Bar Association and is serving the association's office in the Michigan law section and on the committee for civilian defense.

IN MICHIGAN Leonard is chairman of the permanent committee representing state law enforcement agencies. He is president of the Wayne University Law School alumni, and is serving on the Detroit area Councils of Boy Scouts of America.
