THE PATHS these Albion freshmen will follow are historic, for each is following the footsteps of parents or grandparents. Bill Anderson, (right) is a third generation student, his mother, Mrs. Oscar William Anderson, 1051 Rivenook having been in the Class of '28, and his grandmother, Frances Howard in the Class of '05. With Bill are John Wansley Dean of Albion and Betty Jane Brown, granddaughter of Dr. Samuel Dickie, former Albion college president.

A son, Douglas Ramsey, was born Sept. 19 at Harper hospital, Detroit to DR. AND MRS. FRENCH H. McCAIN of 2560 Dorchester.

Twins, Stephen and Jennifer, were born September 26 to MR. AND MRS. JOHN B. CLARK of Tarzana, Calif. Mrs. Clark is the former Carmela DiPietro of Birmingham.

A son, Mark Thomas, was born September 28 in Jacksonville, Fla., to LT. AND MRS. FRANK C. WANGBERG. Lt. Wangberg is attached to the naval air station there.

A daughter, Nancy, was born September 25 to MR. AND MRS. WALTER L. FRY, JR. of Golfview drive. Mrs. Fry is the former Marion Clarke.
