

FRANKLIN NEWS

By ANGELA DADSON
MAYfair 6-2441

Comes fall, comes football. The Edward Greens joined the crowd at Ann Arbor last Saturday to witness the Michigan-Michigan State game. They went in the company of 40 friends from Detroit, the Saturday nighters, and joined them in a private dinner dance after the game.

The Timothy LaFontaines took as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton, of Dearborn. The party had dinner after the game at Dearborn Inn.

As is their custom, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh White joined the Plum Hollow annual football party, with the Richard Oberschultzes and the Bill Jacobsons of Franklin, the Warren Rainers of Walled Lake and Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts of Birmingham as their guests. All met at the club for breakfast, went to the game by bus and returned to Plum Hollow for the dinner dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nichols and son Mike attended the game, partly as an extension of the celebration of Mike's 15th birthday on the preceding Wednesday.

The Grant Sivers attended the game with their neighbors, Jack LeVans as their guests.

The Kenneth Berridges of Colony Hill road, and the Fred Ziegels made up another football foursome.

A recent visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Siver at their place on Garden Way was her mother, Mrs. V. McConnell, here from Lincoln, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cooke, 14-Mile road, were hosts at dinner last week to Vernon Vize, visiting them from Meadowbrook, Pennsylvania.

Wing Lake Farms, Inc., has elected as officers for the group's new fiscal year James L. Wilson, president; Joseph G. Juetz, vice-president; Ora Gosling, secretary and H. Dillow, treasurer.

These men are joined on the 18-man board by newly elected members Dean Davis, Clyde Sickle, Allan Gedelman, Harold Fieldrich and Steve Pettie, and by incumbents Merie Sullivan, H. W. Shea, Dr. W. A. Gilpin, A. C. Carr, E. W. Williams, Dr. R. R. Kelley, Frank Chesquiere, A. N. Nergott and Edward Laske.

September meeting elected Mrs. Philip Price, president; Mrs. Leslie Jones, vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Franzen, secretary; and Mrs. Kenneth Blanton, treasurer.

The Franklin Garden club meeting tonight is open to all men and women in this area. The speaker is garden expert Alice Wessels Burlingame and refreshments will be served after the meeting, scheduled to open at 8:30 p.m. at the Franklin Community church.

St. Anne's Guild will hold its monthly meeting at noon next Wednesday, October 8, at the Normandy road home of Mrs. R. D. Squires. Co-hostesses will be Mesdames Edwin Casenhiser and Conal Shelton. A dessert luncheon will be served.

The Franklin Cemetery auxiliary will meet for October at the home of Mrs. Donald Browles on Square Lake road. Luncheon will be served at noon preceding this Thursday, Oct. 9 session.

Ladies of the Friendly circle will hold an all-day work session each Tuesday during October to complete items for the forthcoming fall bazaar. The next such meeting will open at 10 a.m. at the Birmingham road home of Mrs. D. Carlton Bell.

The Woodcock Ladies will meet next at the home of Mrs. Lorne Blanchfield, 27936 Old Colony road. The date is Oct. 7, the time 12:00 noon.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

The Live Wire club at its Sep-

Dresses First IN THE Fall Fashion Parade

jean Lang ORIGINAL

FLUID LINES FOR FALL

Easy flowing lines that are easy to wear in Wyner's "sag-no-mor" wool jersey. With a neckline becomingly curved and complemented by a sweetheart contour belt. Sizes 12 to 18.

$27.95

A FLARE FOR FLATTERY

Eighteen gares of flare for a fabulous fitting umbrella skirt in Wyner's "sag-no-mor" wool jersey. Accented by finely chiseled quarter-fitch-stitch bodice detail. Made comfortable by squared deep armhole sleeves. Sizes 12 to 20.

$27.95

jean Lang ORIGINAL

OPEN FRIDAY EVENINGS TILL NINE

The F. J. Mulholland Company

Serving Baskets

from China Italy France Mexico Madeira

Gourmet Gift - Food Shop

185 S. Woodward Tel. MI 4-7611
Birmingham Theater Bldg.
FREE PARKING IN REAR OF STORE

ELLIOTT FURNITURE COMPANY

Located on East Side of Dixie, 1/2 Mile South of Waterford

FINEST UPHOLSTERING

Our twenty-six years in Pontiac is your guarantee of satisfaction. Our upholstery craftsmen and experienced tradesmen qualified to reupholster furniture may also be refinished in our complete cabinet and finishing department. Slight additional charges for refashioning. Our material and fabric selection is complete.

CUSTOM MADE FURNITURE

5390 Dixie Highway Phone Orlando 3-2641

Are you a garter-martyr?

See how Playtex solves your garter problems with the new Adjust-All Girdles

- Fit you all from small to tall!
- Completely adjustable.
- Never lose their elasticity.
- Never slip, never sag.
- Made of smooth latex.
- Waist thin, yet long-lived.
- Invisible under sleekest clothes.
- Help save stockings.
- Four on each girdle!

Come See Invisible Playtex Fab-Lined Girdles with new Adjust-All Garters

Trust the world's newest, most wanted girdle to come up with the world's newest, most wanted improvement—fabulously adjustable garters that adjust with a touch to your lines and liking, to fit perfectly.

You'll find four of these garters on the Playtex Fab-Lined Girdle. And that's four extra reasons to come, write, phone today for your figure-slimming, freedom-giving Playtex Fab-Lined Girdle!

Playtex Fab-Lined Girdle with new Adjust-All Garters—Your choice of White Magic or Pink—only $6.95

In the strikingly new SM Playtex tube.

ALL SAINTS Episcopal church, Pontiac, was the scene of the Sept. 13 wedding, when Miss Delores Chamberlain became the bride of Darrell Kelley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chamberlain of Pontiac. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kelley of Purdy street, Birmingham. The couple are now residing in Pontiac.

Have You Met . . .
Newcomers from Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Winchell and their two children? The Winchells are now residing at 27245 Scenic highway. He is an engineer with GM's Chevrolet division. Use Classified Ads—They Sell!

Let's track down that lovely garden we are hearing about from garden lovers at the home of Mrs. H. C. Muehlman, 328 George Street.

Mrs. Muehlman has lived at her present address for four years. The lot is 10'x135' and the entire backyard outside of the flower beds is paved with red bricks in a basket weave design. No grass to mow. The total charm of this woman's creation need in your garden, just tell your friends of this idea.

There is an intimate garden, a semi-circle with a border of boxwood and pillared at the entrance caught our eye. This triangle around the yard. Rhythm and peaceful curves are the keynote of this yard.

They enjoy two lots and have placed on a line with their house and on the second lot a grouping of spruce. They were joined 15 feet apart, their limbs were placed together and now this triangle tree effect assure the owner of backyard privacy.

Along their border they have a Washington hawthorne which has shown berries than the Paul Scarlet variety. (A tip for the new planer.)

DOWN A PORTION of the length of the garden in the center of the courtyard is a rose garden. They are planted closer than they should be but are healthy and give me a constant treat of color.

My favorite rose is the gray under debate? Do I like fall or springtime best?

In September when the Art Fair was held at Kirk in the Hills I became convinced more than ever of the importance of a church outside the church after a scrupulous courtyard with a few benches to invite families to gather after services, and old friends to chat. Colorful flower borders could be planned with minimum of upkeep necessary. There are many older members of a congregation who would welcome the invitation to work with a well-chosen plan. The therapeutic value of this program to those who no longer have personal gardens would be important.

I HESITATE to offer this suggestion but as you work around your garden this fall do not pull up all of the "expired" old annuals as they will hold the snow as it blows this winter and will aid you in keeping a good snow blanket which is the insulation you need in your garden. A loss of roses and other plant material will not be so great. You may feel as though your garden housekeeping is sloppy but just tell your friends of this idea.

AT 1180 WILLOW LANE we called on the Robert Clarks. The mountain ash in front of the house caught our eye. This tree around the yard. Rhythm and peaceful curves are the keynote of this yard.

They enjoy two lots and have placed on a line with their house and on the second lot a grouping of spruce. They were joined 15 feet apart, their limbs were placed together and now this triangle tree effect assure the owner of backyard privacy.

Along their border they have a Washington hawthorne which has shown berries than the Paul Scarlet variety. (A tip for the new planer.)

Down to Earth

By ALICE WESSELS BURLINGAME

October is the time of year when the perennial question is under debate: Do I like fall or springtime best?

In September when the Art Fair was held at Kirk in the Hills I became convinced more than ever of the importance of a church outside the church after a scrupulous courtyard with a few benches to invite families to gather after services, and old friends to chat. Colorful flower borders could be planned with minimum of upkeep necessary. There are many older members of a congregation who would welcome the invitation to work with a well-chosen plan. The therapeutic value of this program to those who no longer have personal gardens would be important.

AT 1180 WILLOW LANE we called on the Robert Clarks. The mountain ash in front of the house caught our eye. This tree around the yard. Rhythm and peaceful curves are the keynote of this yard.

They enjoy two lots and have placed on a line with their house and on the second lot a grouping of spruce. They were joined 15 feet apart, their limbs were placed together and now this triangle tree effect assure the owner of backyard privacy.

Along their border they have a Washington hawthorne which has shown berries than the Paul Scarlet variety. (A tip for the new planer.)

My favorite rose is the gray under debate? Do I like fall or springtime best?

In September when the Art Fair was held at Kirk in the Hills I became convinced more than ever of the importance of a church outside the church after a scrupulous courtyard with a few benches to invite families to gather after services, and old friends to chat. Colorful flower borders could be planned with minimum of upkeep necessary. There are many older members of a congregation who would welcome the invitation to work with a well-chosen plan. The therapeutic value of this program to those who no longer have personal gardens would be important.

There is an intimate garden, a semi-circle with a border of boxwood and pillared at the entrance caught our eye. This triangle around the yard. Rhythm and peaceful curves are the keynote of this yard.

They enjoy two lots and have placed on a line with their house and on the second lot a grouping of spruce. They were joined 15 feet apart, their limbs were placed together and now this triangle tree effect assure the owner of backyard privacy.

Along their border they have a Washington hawthorne which has shown berries than the Paul Scarlet variety. (A tip for the new planer.)

Three Birmingham young people are candidates for bachelor of science degrees in engineering at Brown university, Providence, R. I., while a fourth is candidate for a BS degree in chemistry.

The first is Miss Gail L. Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Glover of 1144 Cranbrook road. She is a graduate of Kingswood school.

Cranbrook graduates, David F. Maroon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morell Maroon of 735 Shirley, while Daniel H. Newey III, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Newey, Jr., 1085 Waddington.

Robert S. Campbell, a Birmingham high school graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Campbell, 1333 Glengary.

DOWN A PORTION of the length of the garden in the center of the courtyard is a rose garden. They are planted closer than they should be but are healthy and give me a constant treat of color.

My favorite rose is the gray under debate? Do I like fall or springtime best?

In September when the Art Fair was held at Kirk in the Hills I became convinced more than ever of the importance of a church outside the church after a scrupulous courtyard with a few benches to invite families to gather after services, and old friends to chat. Colorful flower borders could be planned with minimum of upkeep necessary. There are many older members of a congregation who would welcome the invitation to work with a well-chosen plan. The therapeutic value of this program to those who no longer have personal gardens would be important.

AT 1180 WILLOW LANE we called on the Robert Clarks. The mountain ash in front of the house caught our eye. This tree around the yard. Rhythm and peaceful curves are the keynote of this yard.

They enjoy two lots and have placed on a line with their house and on the second lot a grouping of spruce. They were joined 15 feet apart, their limbs were placed together and now this triangle tree effect assure the owner of backyard privacy.

Along their border they have a Washington hawthorne which has shown berries than the Paul Scarlet variety. (A tip for the new planer.)

The Lady Says 'Yes' to Forsman's Couture. Lebow leads the fashion caravan with 100% camel hair for suits, sport jackets, and separates. Camel hair has that extra something for men. It's a fashion first. $1.00

YOUNG'S OF BIRMINGHAM

203 PIERCE ST. OPEN THURSDAY AND FRIDAY EVENINGS
FRENCH, SHIRNER and URNER Shoes