

MICHIGAN OUTDOORS

DAYS OF MAGIC
Late October and the first ten days of November are days of magic in Michigan Outdoors. The riot of color—reds, greens, yellows—blend to a golden hue in a farewell to a waning season. The golden week come to sportsmen seeking Michigan at its best. You like to fish? You like to hunt? You're a "shut-up-bug" with still or movie camera? Michigan is waiting for you!

Fishermen's Dream
Fall days on many of our lakes and streams present a fisherman's dream come true. The first frost whets the appetites of sleepy northern pike. Bass move into shoal waters in chase of minnows. Big, fat blue gillies rise to the surface, ready to strike at tiny flies. Great Lakes perch develop whopper appetites. The ten and twelve inch variety catch their summer spawning and caution—avidly take the bait along the entire coastline of Lake Huron and along most of Lake Michigan, too.

Fur up in Lake Superior, sport trolling for lake trout brings in the big ones, but there is few to enjoy the thrill. And in many a major Michigan river the fall run of steelhead, or lake-run rainbow trout is in full swing. In the past year a total of 10 national prize winners in the rainbow trout division came from a single Michigan stream—the Manistee!

A Birmingham Resident, Mort Neff's "Michigan Outdoors" television show appears every Thursday at 7:00 p.m. over station WWJ-TV.

Eagles Stalk Antelopes
Deer Lodge, Mont.—While out in a valley, Marvin Faucher, of Deer Lodge, saw a golden eagle circling in the sky. Suddenly, the bird folded its wings and plunged earthward. A few feet from the ground, the eagle threw out its wings, braking the drive and stretched its sharp talons into the back of an antelope fawn. Game Warden Barton declared the eagles have been killing an average of one fawn a day since June 1st and do not confine their killing to antelope but also kill deer fawns and calf elk.

The Franklin Community association's annual party for area children will be held at the community hall on Halloween. Starting at 7:30, there will be refreshments, games, movies and pony rides will create a carnival atmosphere.

Carl Jansson, 70, visiting his son and daughter-in-law, the Eric Janssons, at their home on 13-Mile road, left New York on his journey homeward to Munfords, Vermont, Sweden on Oct. 9, sailing on Gripsholm. The Janssons accompanied him to New York early in October and all spent several days sightseeing.

The Gordon Shaws, Garden Way, were hosts to weekend houseguest Miss Myra Popples, of Somerset, England, who is visiting in Detroit. She is Mrs. Shaw's cousin.
Mrs. Maud Baugh, who has been a visitor at the Crestwood drive home of her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Baugh, has returned to her home in Portland, Me.
Among the hunters who headed north last week were Dr. Gerald Wright and T. H. Brehm, who chose the vicinity of Atlanta for a week of partridge hunting. Gordon Shaw hunted near Alpena. Up at his place at Elk Lake was Dr. Duane Lurkin, with a party including D. A. McIntyre, H. A. Cavasugh, Robert Zimmerman, James Howe and Ivan Graham. Mrs. Brehm took advantage of no mistake on either path!

The Lincoln Parkers, 14-Mile road, have been vacationing in West Virginia. Making White Sulphur Springs their holiday headquarters, they spent some time at the restored Colonial village of Williamsburg.
Back from the Greenbrier, too, are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones of Telegraph road. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nass, of Chicago, and Mrs. and Mrs. Jack Dahlstrom of Louisville, Ky.
The Karl Scotts, of Bingham road, are vacationing at the Homestead at Hot Springs, Va. They left early last week and stopped on route at Washington, D. C. where they were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lynch.
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carrin, Franklin road, are back from a vacation at the Greenbrier, where they attended the National Tax Executive Institute's convention, and Washington, D. C. They visited Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nordberg.
Mr. and Mrs. David Cooke and daughter Linda, of 14-Mile road, spent last weekend in Elkhardt, Ind., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nesbitt.

Mrs. Dudley Campbell, neighborhood chairman of the Franklin Girl Scouts, announces meetings of leaders will be held at 2:45 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month. The first meeting will be held at the Franklin Community Church on Nov. 4.

John Lurkin, son of Dr. and Mrs. Duane Lurkin, was inducted into the army on Oct. 10. At last word he was still at Camp Custer awaiting assignment to a specific training center.

Miss Nancy Bingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carson Bingham of Bingham road was incorrectly reported enrolled at Stevens College; is a sophomore at the University of Detroit.

The men of Franklin church have been meeting at the Ralph Woodburn home on Telegraph road each Thursday evening to work on wooden articles for the fall bazaar on Nov. 8. They invite others to join them. Any man who will work with them on any or all of the three remaining Thursday evenings should call Mr. or Mrs. Woodburn on the Midwest exchange.

Friendly Circle members will work on bazaar projects on Tuesday, Oct. 28 at the home of Mrs. Glen Shoemaker. Beginning at 10 a.m., the session will last all day.

Thomas White of the Chrysler conference of business management will address the members of the Woodcreek Farms Civic association on "The Power of Your Vote" when they meet at the Wendell Brown home, 2921 Ardmore, at 8 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 30.

ALICE MCGREGOR, CHARTER MEMBER of the Birmingham Business Women's Association, cuts into the 29th anniversary cake at a banquet Thursday night, October 16. Mrs. Gertrude Fox, retiring president, stands by to receive the first cut as the oldest service organization in the city celebrated its birthday. (Eccentric Staff Photo)

THREE GREAT FAITHS JOIN IN SPONSORING TORCH DRIVE

Rt. Rev. Msgr. John A. Donovan, Chancellor, Archdiocese of Detroit; Rabbi Leon Fram of Temple Israel; Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, President Detroit Council of Churches solemnly join to urge your support of the greatest of all modern Good Samaritan activities—the annual Metropolitan Detroit Torch Drive. All religions, throughout history, have taught the blessedness and joy of giving.

The everlasting principle of charitable works remains as important today as when first it became a tenet of all religious thought. Times have changed, but the spirit of giving lives on fresh and strong.

Today the greater Detroit United Foundation Torch Drive is America's most efficient expression of the blessedness of giving. Under the slogan "Give Once for All" it recognizes the compelling need for charitable contributions, yet eliminates the confusion, duplicate effort and wasted energy of a multitude of separate drives. You give to 150 worthy causes, all in one contribution.

Started in Detroit in 1949, this great civic event is a modern marvel of effective fundraising. More than 200 other cities across the country have patterned after our proved success.

The need in 1952 is greater than ever before. 50,000 of your neighbors are giving freely of their time, their energy and their money to meet our new and higher goals. Greet your Torch Drive representative with a smile, and dig deeper than ever before. He'll be calling on you soon.
