The first meeting of the Lathrup PTA, held October 14, was highlighted by a talk by American Red Cross representative Mrs. Virginia Cooper. Speaking on "Every Day First Aid," Mrs. Cooper's discussion covered emergency treatment for situations that arise in every day living. She stressed the importance of prevention. A large crowd turned out for the meeting and 132 memberships were taken in during the evening.

The association voted to take over the Lathrup school playground as its project for the year. School children have already begun collecting newspapers for a paper drive toward that fund.

Also on the altar were honor attendant Marjorie Crook, the bride's sister; and bridesmaids Barbara Parks, Ann Wright and Mrs. William York, the sister of the groom.

The long bridal gown of Chantilly lace over satin was finished with a train. The bodice was styled with an illusion net yolk edged with pearls which also rimmed the points of her long fitted sleeves.

The bride wore a medium veil held by a cap of tulle lace and inset with pearls. She carried a staphoteuf centered with a white orchid.
