Cub Pack B2 held their regular meeting for all Scouts and parents at the Quanton school gym Oct. 24. Opening the program that evening was the presentation of the colors by the 12 Boy Scout den chiefs and the formal acceptance of the 44 new Bobcats, first step in Cub Scouting. The handicraft projects and Don Doodle Totem Poles were displayed for judging by the Cubs themselves. Achievement awards were presented to "Wolf" Fred Jaynes, "Bears" Larry Wilcox, "Cappy" Robertson, Terry Liphart, "Sid" Sullivan, and "Lions" Pete Grannis, John Sheehy and John Budd. Group singing was led by John Emmett's dad with Cub Scout Danny Reid at the piano. A stage skit entitled "Get Out and Vote," was the highlight of the program with the Don "Players" Bob Brookman, Otto Laula, Eric Nitsch, Richard Reid, Burt Shurley and Don VanBoren in the cast. The closing ceremonies included the Jack-o-lantern presentation by Akela in the living circle. This year marks the largest Cub Pack group for Quanton with 100 enrolled.

General news deadline is 4:30 p.m. each Tuesday.

Musical Priest Addresses Guild

The Seton Guild's annual Mass for deceased members will be held in the chapel of St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Children's Home, 12 Mile and Inkster roads, at nine o'clock Thursday morning, November 6. Brunch will follow in Laboure Hall. The Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J., producer of the new musical extravaganza "Light Up the Land," will preview the show for Seton Guild members and friends at their morning meeting. The show commemorates the University of Detroit's 75th Anniversary and will be presented in the Memorial building on campus November 15-25. Arrangements for the annual Christmas at the Home will be completed at the meeting.
