Alumnae Dinner Is Occasion For Round of Parties

Several groups of University alumnae in the area will gather for pre-dinner parties before going to the Alumnae Association's dinner honoring University president and Mrs. Harlan Hatcher.

Dr. Hatcher will address the group following the dinner which is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday evening, October 14, at Devon Gables.

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Bain have asked Mr. and Mrs. Walter Patton, Mr. and Mrs. William Burlingame, and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kiefer to join them in their Willow Lane home.

Also planning to entertain friends before dinner are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davison.

FRANKLIN NEWS
By ANGELA DADSON
Mayfair 6-2441

The Franklin PTA will open the season with a meeting at 8 p.m. next Tuesday, Oct. 14, at the school. Dr. Dwight Ireland, superintendent of the Birmingham school system, will discuss objectives of education in the system, primarily at the elementary level.

Several department heads will speak briefly on the subject. George Roper of Franklin, headmaster of City and Country School in Bloomfield Hills and Marshall Frederick of Bloomfield Hills, will also address the group. Frederick is a famous Michigan sculptor, recently received the nation's highest award in his field, notable among his works is the eagle design on the Veterans Memorial Building in Detroit.

This program has been planned on the basis of replies to a questionnaire sent PTA members last spring. One prominent response to that questionnaire was a request for family night movies for parents and their children, the first of which will be presented at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 17, at the Community Hall. Cartoons and other short subjects will be shown. Tickets will be sold at the conclusion of the Oct. 14 meeting. The show is expected to run about an hour and a half.

The men of the Franklin Community association will meet at the community hall next Monday, Oct. 13, for a stag smoker. There will be card playing and refreshments at this affair, scheduled to start at 8 p.m.

Another stag affair for association members has been arranged for Sunday, Oct. 19, when chartered buses will take the group to the Detroit Lions-Los Angeles Rams football game.

Philip Van Dyke, association president, states that social affairs will be stressed on the association's calendar this year. November brings the annual President's Ball, a dinner-dance honoring the outgoing and incoming presidents.

Joseph Cuchi will discuss millinery design and will display hats he has created. Assisting the hostesses will be Mrs. Harold Roseberry, Mrs. Karl Matus and Mrs. C. J. Seaver.

The regular monthly meeting of the Evening Circle will be supplanted by a work session. Members will be notified when a suitable meeting place has been located. The time has been set, however, at 8:15 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 16.

Mrs. Edward Green, president of the Circle, announces that the bazaar pork sessions will also be held at the Woodlure road home at 8 p.m. every Wednesday through Nov. 5.

Fall Fashion Show At Newcomers Club

The regular monthly 12:15 p.m. luncheon of the Newcomers Club at the Community House next Thursday will be followed by a fashion show sponsored by local merchants.

Models will be furnished by the Newcomers.

Mrs. H. Fairchild Doty is show chairman.

Women's Club Juniors Meet Tuesday Evening

The Junior Birmingham Women's Club will meet at eight o'clock Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Marjorie Tate, 954 Westchester Way.

Mrs. Richard G. Edsh, state junior chairman, will be the evening's speaker.
