

Student Congress Holds Two Meets

Student Congress under bicameral setup got underway last week. The house of representatives had two meetings which were conducted by president Jim Barger.

In the first meeting the representatives were seated by homerooms; and student committees set up. A few of these committees were already under way because of their need. These committees are health committee, headed by Kendal Fowler; service committee, Bob Thalacker; bus committee, Linda Miller; and student supervision, Doug Colwell.

Mt. Clemens Host To EML Meeting

The annual Eastern Michigan League dinner meeting was hosted by Mt. Clemens recently at Hillcrest country club.

In the afternoon the principals and athletic directors held a business meeting at which it was decided that since the all sports trophy has been discontinued, a new plate would be put on the trophy containing the history of the league.

ATTENDING FROM Birmingham were Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, superintendent of schools; Norman A. Wolfe, assistant superintendent; Ernest Seaholm, president of the board of education; Amos F. Gregory, secretary of the board; Ross A. Wagner, principal of

Bloomfield High Has 75% of Class Going To College

A recent survey of Bloomfield Hills High school graduates last June found that 48% of the 24 grade have entered colleges and universities this fall. The survey also revealed that the 18 selected 12 schools throughout the nation in which to continue their education.

Most popular choice of entering freshmen was Michigan State College, with the University of Michigan getting the second nod. But east and west coast representation was given by students going to Bennington College, Vt. and Stanford, California.
