

Suburban Seen

By KAY REED

HAVE YOU HEARD about the Pilgrim (road resident) who went to Boston? While seated in the Copley's famed Merry-Go-Round room with her husband, she placed her purse on a table adjacent to her chair.

Not for long however. The table, purse and all, started circling the room while our suburbanite stared after it. As she was swearing off cocktails forever, the whole equipage returned to her elbow and she retrieved it before it could take another ride on the room's center pavilion—a continually circulating merry-go-round.

COST OF LIVING charts may be very impressive, but it's still the little things in life that hurt. A staff member hopefully deposited a nickel in a local peanut dispenser and was anything but gratified on receiving 2 and a half nuts. She is still muttering about the good old days when one got a whole bag for that price.

SUBURBAN SEEN was delighted but a little bit puzzled the other day on receiving two bottles of Lucrece Long perfume via New York. The only identification was courtesy of the Post Office and, since that venerable department is not given to such donations, we are in a quandary as to where to direct our thanks. Can anyone help?

WE ARE STILL clunking over the glibbie suburbanites who trustfully followed us into the wilds of Washtenaw County on a recent football Saturday. Since our pilot drives with great authority, they never hesitated when we dove with a roar into a wrong-way back alley. The policeman on a Plymouth corner look-stunned at the neck profession of game-laden vehicles which crawled out of literally nowhere.

BIRMINGHAM AND VICINITY will be well represented at the second annual Michigan International Horse Show which will be held at the State Fair Coliseum October 9-12.

Entries have already been made by Cecil J. Finlin, Rande Grant, Ann Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Duffy and son Frank, and Harry Suelzer who has entered five horses under the colors of his Echo Valley Farm.

Mrs. Duffy, very active in show circles, is a member of the executive committee of the Michigan Horse Show's Association, Inc., sponsor of the show.

There is no substitute for absolute beauty. True, most people will forgive mistakes of the head, but not of the heart. If you diligently seek to be honest in all dealings, you gain a reputation whose worth exceeds any cash you can put in a bank.

PART 4

Fashion Show Proceeds Go To St. Elizabeth's Home

Tuesday, October 14, is the date chosen by the members of the Birmingham Society for their fashion show, bridge and tea at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club.

Proceeds will go to St. Elizabeth's Home for the Aged in Bloomfield Hills. The home is unique in that married couples may remain together in their declining years, is open to all races and creeds.

The show is administered by Sister M. Theresa of the Order of the Daughters of Divine Charity. A staff of nine sisters maintains the home which has a capacity of 43 persons.

St. Elizabeth's home is supported by payments from the guests and voluntary donations.

The Fashion Show Will Begin at Two O'clock

Chairman of the party, Mrs. Theodore F. MacManus, Jr., will be assisted by Mrs. Paul Lenzon.

Door prizes are being provided by Mrs. Otter Millbrand and Mrs. T. Curtis McKenzie in charge of ticket sales. Mrs. John Ham-bridge will be under the direction of Mrs. John Ellwood. Mrs. John R. MacManus is handling publicity.

Curtain To Rise On 'Circus Day'

Clowns, acrobats, wild west boys and performing animals will fill the stage of the Birmingham Theater tomorrow when the A.A.U.W. Children's Theatre presents the opening performance of the season, "Circus Day."

The curtain will rise at ten in the morning and again at two o'clock in the afternoon.

CAST MEMBERS include Mrs. Lawrence Martz, Mrs. Ralph Fox, Mrs. G. S. Dix, Miss Shirley Hersey, Mrs. Carl Rice, Mrs. W. F. Corrigan, Mrs. A. Daley, Mrs. Richard Cloonan, Mrs. George Steek, Mrs. Horton Allen, Mrs. B. F. Ober, Mrs. Walter Patton and Mrs. A. D. Sheldon.

Bermuda Honeymoon Follows Nuptials

A wedding trip to New York and Bermuda followed the high noon nuptials Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. John Bernard Depman, Jr.

The bride's uncle, the Rev. Elmer J. Nancy, officiated at the ceremony in the Shrine of the Little Flower.

The bride, the former Mary Therese Cuchi, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph John Cuchi of Devonshire road. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Depman, Sr., came from their Collingwood, N. J., home for their son's marriage.

The Chantilly lace bridal gown was fashioned in a ritzee style with a tight bodice and bouffant skirt. A tulle fingertip veil and a lace and seed pearl cap completed her costume.

The bride carried a white orchid on her prayerbook.

MRS. JOHN PAUL THORESEN was her sister's maid of honor. She and bridesmaid Maureen Theresa Kelley wore in amber gowns

Young People's Concert Series Will Be Resumed This Winter

Many an adult will have musical memories this coming winter by the return of the Detroit Symphony's series of three Saturday morning Young People's Concerts. Sponsored jointly by the Junior League of Birmingham and Detroit, the Women's Association of the Detroit Symphony and the Junior Women's Association, under the direction of Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough, one of the city's traditions will be restored when these four organizations begin selling tickets for the series.

The concerts will be conducted by Valter Poole, associate conductor and educational director of the orchestra and will feature Laurence Collins as guest conductor.

COMMITTEE chairmen include Miss Isabelle Hoersch, Mrs. Jay D. Runkle, Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge and Mrs. Arthur W. Sempin.

Serving as advisors are Mrs. William T. Gossett of the Birmingham Junior League, Mrs. William L. Hurley, Jr., Mrs. Fred L. Black of the Women's Association, Mrs. Robert E. Sempin, and Mrs. Noel Baker of the Junior Women's Association for the Orchestra.
