Friday evening the Don Hardins of Elmwood avenue, invited some of their neighbors to see sound slide films. The Thomas Rains, Richard Backs, Fred Hockings, Robert Bush, and Robert Grombs joined them for the evening.

Friday afternoon Bonnie and Carl Flodquist, Sharon McConaughy, Joan DiLoreto and Debbie Parrish went to the home of the DeVaughn Clarks on Conlidge highway to celebrate Susan Clark's sixth birthday. The young ladies played games and enjoyed the traditional refreshments.

Last weekend the Michael J. Malones of Cooper avenue, entertained the Carroll Hardins of the same street at their lodge on the Blythe near Grayling. The four young spent some time hunting birds. The weekend was a rare-group, which will hold its second meeting Wednesday, Oct. 15, surge all mothers of pre-school children to attend. At the first meeting of the year they elected the following officers: chairman, Mrs. Donald E. Johnson; vice-chairman, Mrs. Robert Grubbs; secretary, Mrs. Harlan Schalk; treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Runner; membership, Mrs. Joseph Bassett; programs, Mrs. William Grant; publicity, Mrs. George Nauman and hostess, Mrs. Herbert Burton.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. McFaul, Jr. of Coolidge highway have their new son, Mark Edward, who was born Sept. 17, at home with them now.

The Eugene C. Knapiens of Normandy road also have a new son, Thomas Eugene, born Sept. 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Tonawanda announce the birth of Brian Stewart Sept. 11. Mrs. Smith is the former Gertrude Von-Weller.

Instead of a traditional birthday party, Larry Bassett invited everyone he wished to his home for an ice cream cone on his sixth birthday. Mrs. Joseph Bassett, of Elmwood Avenue, reports that 25 children enjoyed cones on Larry's "treat-day."
