Construction Hits Low For Mid-Season Program

Construction hit a mid-season low in Birmingham last month when permits were issued for only 66 buildings, totaling $384,275. This is the second low month of the year, topping the March figure of $274,685 by only about $11,000.

Comparative figures for 1951 show 80 permits issued in August for a $643,335 building program.
