NEWS FROM

Southeast of Birmingham

By JANE STAGG
Lincoln 4-0790

Last week school started and the last of the summer vacationers reluctantly returned. Summer is too short. On Tuesday, the Frank Forests of Robinwood returned from a visit with Forest's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Forest of Clinton, Ont.

Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Crego chose Tuesday to return to their home on Trafford road from a cottage at Pt. Lookout on Lake Huron. Mrs. Crego and three children went to the cottage July 2. Dr. Crego commuted week-ends to the cottage. Mrs. Crego's sister and brother-in-law, the Donald Johnsons, of Guilford road were at Pt. Lookout occupying the guest cottage of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rohrbeck of Detroit, who are Mrs. Johnson's parents.

Mrs. Charles Baker and children returned to their home on Robinwood the day before school opened. They had spent a month with Mrs. Baker's parents, the W. H. Steinbergs, at their cottage on Lake Champlain, Vt. Baker returned two weeks earlier.

Although the children in the P. D. Moore family of Guilford road are not yet old enough for school, the family returned last week from Burt Lake where they had a cottage for a month.

The Webb Kincaeds waited until last Sunday to return to Groveland avenue from a cottage near Brighton where they had spent the previous week. Last Wednesday the W. J. Fitzgeralds of Cooper avenue returned from Baldwin, L.I., where they had visited Mrs. Fitzgerald's father, M. Matheron. Their daughter Kathy, spent a weekend with her grandfather while her parents visited friends at a summer home on Peconic Bay.

Mrs. Harry Blair and son returned last week from a house party given by her cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGrath, at their farm home near Blairtown, N.J. Her parents, the Edward Klopfenstein, of Ferndale made the trip with her.

Betty Heinz, 17, of 814 her mother, Mrs. Joseph Voss to her home on Robinwood avenue for a week's visit when she returned after spending Labor Day week-end with her in Cincinnati.

The Dick Swarts returned to Groveland avenue last Wednesday after spending the weekend in the Smoky Mountains. Mrs. Swart flew to Nashville, Tenn., two weeks ago where her parents, the W. L. Woods, met her and took her to their home in Murfreesboro. She also visited her brother, W. L. Wood, Jr., in Knoxville before her husband joined her.

The Willem K. Von Weilers are at home on Cooper avenue after visiting in Toronto and spending a weekend in Chicago. VonWeiler is the Consul for the Netherlands in Detroit. Their daughter Helen, who works in the social service department at Pontiac state hospital, toured the west with two former schoolmates at Michigan State. Ruth Smith of Birmingham and Audrey Scarpier, Flint, went with her to Yellowstone national park.

The Bill Buechlers of Olivia avenue announce the birth of a daughter on Sept. 2.

Monday evening the executive board, comprised of officers and committee chairmen, of the new Upton school P.T.A. met at the new school to make plans for the coming year. Mrs. John Gillman, Olivia avenue, who is blood recruitment chairman of South Oakland county chapter of the American Red Cross, attended the meeting to explain the procedure of establishing a blood bank.

Denver, Colorado, Home Awaits Honeymooning Pair

MRS. RICHARD DOWNING

En route to Denver, Colo., and their new home are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Downing, Jr. Their August 30 nuptials were held at five o'clock in the afternoon at Christ Church Cranbrook, with the Rev. Lawrence Pearson on the altar. The bride, the former Nancy Whitelaw, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whitelaw of Wadlington road.

They and the groom are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Downing of Denver.

Her princess-styled gown of imported Chantilly lace and ivory satin was accented by lace panels sweeping into the train. Her bonnet of rose point lace was from her mother's wedding gown, and held a veil of fingertip illusion. The bridal bouquet was of fleur-d'amour and pink roses.

MRS. WHITELAW stood in the receiving line in her home after the ceremony in a blue silk taffeta with a bodice of Alencon lace over pink satin.

BETTY WHITELAW was her sister's maid of honor in a ballering gown of blue-green taffeta with a wide V neckline and unpressed pleats.

Among those present were Mrs. H. T. Abernathy of Kansas City, Mo., and Warwick M. Downing, of Denver. Mrs. Abernathy is the maternal grandmother of the bride who used a silver knife used previously by her mother and grandmother to cut the wedding cake. Mr. Downing is the groom's grandfather.

She wore ivory in her hair and carried a bouquet of faint pink gladioli and roses.

For the trip to Denver the bride changed to a dark green velvet dress with moss green hat and shoes.

The groom's sister, Mrs. R. M. Schmidt of Denver, and Mrs. M. K. Edwards were the bridesmaids. They were dressed identically to the maid of honor, and also carried pink gladioli bouquets.

OES Will Assemble For Special Meeting
Members of the Birmingham chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star have scheduled a special meeting for September 17 at the Masonic Temple on South Woodward avenue.

Peter Looms came from Denver to be the best man. The bride's brother Peter, and two brothers of the groom, Chuck and Warwick Downing, acted as ring boys.

After a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday evening, the chapter will hold "Advanced Officers Night." Mrs. Ruth Love will be initiated.

Come On In and Order One... Today!

There are many people in this community who want a Cadillac ever so badly—and who are almost persuaded to order one——but who, for one reason or another, are just holding back and waiting.
To all these people we say: "Come on in and order your Cadillac today!"
Every day you wait is simply postponing, still further, the wonderful time when you can have and enjoy the many delightful things a Cadillac will bring you.
There is, for instance, the deep feeling of pride which comes from owning a car which is universally acknowledged to be the Standard of the World . . .

. . . the great satisfaction that comes from driving a car so quiet you can "whisper and be heard"; so easy to handle that driving is no conscious effort at all; so comfortable and restful that a day at its wheel is the essence of relaxation . . .
. . . the comforting confidence that comes from the knowledge that your car is so soundly-engineered and so beautifully-built that you can keep it and enjoy it over almost any period of years you may care to designate . . .
. . . and, finally, the happy knowledge that you probably paid less for your Cadillac than hundreds of thousands of people who are driving other makes of cars—for there are numerous models produced by other manufacturers which actually cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac!

Isn't all this too much to miss for even one needless day?
Owners of Cadillacs will tell you it is—out of their own experience. Time and again, people who have just moved up to Cadillac have said to us—"Why did I wait so long to enjoy all this?"
That's why we urge you to come in today and start down the happy road to Cadillac ownership. You have already missed too much—too long!

OCTOBER 18 wedding bells will ring for Marjorie O'Connor and Cornelius Walter Seery, Jr. Their engagement has been revealed by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. O'Connor of Oakland avenue. The bride-elect attended the University of Detroit, and graduated from The Business Institute. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Seery of Royal Oak, graduated from the University of Notre Dame and is now attending Law school at the University of Detroit. The nuptials will take place at Holy Name church.
