JOAN FRANKLIN

Robert Saunders' Engagement Told In Roanoke, Va.

From Roanoke, Virginia, comes the news of the engagement of Joan Elizabeth Franklin and Robert William Saunders. Their troth was revealed at an engagement party given for the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Madison Johnston, at the Roanoke Country Club on September 13.

Miss Franklin was graduated from Stuart Hall in Staunton, Va., and attended Sweet Briar College. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Gordon Saunders of Bloomfield Hills, attended the University of Wyoming and the University of Kansas. He is a member of Sigma Chi.

April wedding plans are being made.

Merchant Marine Auxiliary Benefit

Invitations are now being mailed for a luncheon, fur fashion show and card party to be held September 25 at the International Institute on East Kirby, Detroit.

This is to be the fund-raising event of the year for members of the Women's National American Merchant Marine Organization of the Port of Detroit.

Following luncheon, members of the club and their guests will take a "world tour" through the presentation of the fur fashions. Each interpretation of a country will be done by a model in true native costume, accompanied by native music.

FUNDS WILL go toward shipping films in schools; books such as "Paddle To The Sea" and "The Great Lakes Story" for fifth and sixth graders; and information regarding shipping trades for high school students.

Among the assistant hostesses will be Mrs. F. G. Garrison of Franklin.

Kick-Off Meeting Set For Tuesday

The "kick-off" meeting for the 1952-53 season of the Torry school PTA has been scheduled for eight o'clock Tuesday evening, September 23.

The program will be presented by Richard Featherstone, principal of Torry, and Bennett Root, PTA president. They will report on the Lay Leadership Conference at the College Center in East Lansing last June, to which both were delegates.
