Elections last week Monday, following a smorgasbord dinner, resulted in Philip Van Dyke being made president, Robert Mitchell vice-president, Carlisle House secretary and M. J. P. O'Connell Morrison treasurer of the Franklin Community association. These men, along with incumbents Dr. Lynn Hersey, Homer Hyde, Stanley Krenzel, Lincoln Parker and Harry Rotliers, constitute the new board of directors. The dinner and meeting was attended by 85 members.

It was recommended by the retiring board that half of the current treasury balance be set aside as the start of a fund for building a new town hall. Plans were reported under way for the annual Halloween party for Franklin children and something new is planned for the annual Christmas party.

The Roundup, instituted this year, will be arranged as the association's big party of the new year. The association's membership goal for the year is an increase from 200 to 240. Committee chairman will be announced later.

The first fall meeting of the Woodcrest Farms Civic association will open at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 25, at the home of H. A. Dobson, 2807 1/2 Wellington road. Items of business which arose during the summer will be discussed and four or five new members will be welcomed into the group which now totals 63. Dates for the annual football and Christmas parties will be set at this meeting.

Mrs. Harry Rotliers was hostess at a tea held at her home on 13-Mile road last Thursday afternoon. The occasion was the annual fall get-together of the PTA board and teachers at Franklin school.

Local Cub Scouts will meet for the first time this year on Thursday, Sept. 25. Opening at 7 p.m. at the Franklin Community Hall. The meeting will include the induction of the new Cub.
