

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moon To Make Home In Ann Arbor

University of Michigan students Joan Elaine Carey and Robert Lee Moon, married Saturday at Kirk-in-the-Hills, will make their home in Ann Arbor when they return from a Northern Michigan honeymoon.

Dr. Leslie A. Bechtel officiated at the late afternoon ceremony which was followed by a reception in the garden of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Carey of Middlebelt road.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gruenberg of Battle Creek.

FOR THE doubling service the bride wore Chantilly lace over nylon net with an accordion-pleated skirt and tulle bustle.

Holding her fingertip veil was a cap of matching lace set with seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was fashioned from sprays of white gladioli and ivy centered with a white orchid.

Fidelis Class Installs Newly-Elected Officers At Monday Night Meet

The first fall meeting of the Fidelis class of the First Baptist Church is scheduled for eight o'clock Monday evening at the Church.

Retiring president Mrs. Irving Warlick will preside. The Rev. Emil Kents will install the new slate of officers.

Mrs. Albert Fawley is the newly-elected president. She will be aided in her duties by Mrs. Ormand Davison, vice-president; Mrs. Jack Boyce, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Edward Renshaw, publicity chairman.

Mrs. Stewart Smith is program chairman; Mrs. Rayburn Bonner, membership; Mrs. Clyde McClymonds, white cross; and Miss Evelyn Harris, sunshine.

C. H. Board Meeting

The Community House board of directors will hold their first meeting of the fall season at 8:15 p.m. Monday. Charles B. Kass, president of the board will preside.

She: "Oh John, when we were first married you used to tickle my chin. Do it again."
He: "Okay, which one?"

Mrs. North Carey of Fenton was the master of honor. Susan Carey was her sister's maid of honor, and Joan and Stephanie Spolyar of Harrietta, Mich., were the bridesmaids.

Their ankle-length nylon net gowns were cut with stand-up collars, and were highlighted by matching velvet caps.

The honor matron was in pale blue and the maid of honor in pink. The Misses Spolyar were in yellow and Nile green. All the bridal attendants carried crescent-shaped bouquets of cream-colored gladioli, with the honor maids' edged in pink.

Flower girl Lynne Carey is another sister of the bride. Her floor-length gown of pink nylon net fell over a pink satin slip, and she carried a basket of pink, white and blue flowers matching her head band.

Terry Smith of Battle Creek was the best man. Ushers included North Carey of Fenton, Robert Stakenas of Scottville and Fred Zechman of Chicago.

MRS. CAREY was in a street-length gown of rose-colored silk with an off-white hat and accessories. Mrs. Gruenberg chose a cream-colored suit with matching accessories for her son's nuptials. Both she and Mrs. Carey wore corsages of purple-throated white orchids.

When the couple were leaving on their honeymoon the bride changed to a green dress trimmed in black velvet.
