Past, Present And Future Students Plan 'Send-Off'

When a Denison college freshman from Detroit, Birmingham or Bloomfield arrives on the Ohio campus a few weeks hence, he or she may be still a bit confused by the hustle and bustle, but for the most part the new student will 'know the ropes'. With a little pre-campus orientation in mind, as well as the renewal of friendships and memories by previous undergrads, local Denison students, past, present and future, will gather at Cran-brook's Senior Cabin tomorrow evening. Guest of honor will be Dr. A. Blair Knapp, Denison University president.

ALUMNI MEMBERS who are planning to attend the 6:30 p.m. Send-Off buffet supper include Mr. and Mrs. Robert Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Stubbs, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Barney and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Berger.

The list of 'old grads' attending continues with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Beier, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lewis, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Randall, Mrs. O. L. Beardsley, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Englehart.

WITH THE Collegians

When Wheaton College, Norton, Mass., opens September 17 for its 118th year, one of the entering students will be Carol E. Marcan. Carol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morrell Marcan of Shirley drive, is a graduate of the Tower Hill School.

Perry James Fremont, Jr., Birmingham High School graduate, will enter Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, on September 1. He will study on campus for one year, then go out on his first job under the college's "study-plus-work" plan.

Mary Ann and David Millbrand returned to their West Long Lake road home last week after attending Harvard summer school. Mary Ann will begin her senior year at Vassar September 23. Brother David is a senior at Cranbrook School.
