

Miss Charlier Wed August 16th To Paul Henderson

Mary Elizabeth Charlier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Charlier of Washington boulevard, became the bride of Paul Allen Henderson at a ten-o'clock nuptial high Mass Saturday morning, August 16.

The Rev. Lucian A. Herbert read the service at Holy Name Church. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Henderson of Royal Oak.

The bridal gown was fashioned of white Alencon lace and tulle with an off-shoulder neckline and yoke of nylon net. Her white lace cap was trimmed with seed pearls, and the bride carried white roses and gardenias.

MATRON OF HONOR Mrs. J. Olenavage and bridesmaid Dolores Burr were in pink lace and net gowns with accordion-pleated capes. Pink net halos completed their costumes and they carried bouquets of pink roses and blue carnations.

Joseph Charlier was his new brother-in-law's best man. Seating the guests were another brother, Felix, Jr., and Richard Overmyer. A silk shantung suit-dress of teal blue was chosen by Mrs. Charlier for her daughter's nuptials. Her accessories were navy, and she wore a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Henderson wore a street-length gown of moss-green satin with natural accessories. Yellow roses formed her corsage.

AFTER THE wedding breakfast at Devor Gables a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

When the couple left for a week's honeymoon in Northern Michigan the bride was wearing a corded faille suit of heather blue with navy accessories and a gardenia corsage.
