Name Chairmen For Negro Fund

Seven Oakland County residents and a group of Detroiters were named today for leadership in the forthcoming state campaign for the United Negro College Fund.

The appointments were made by L. J. Jeffrey, Great Lakes Steel Corporation vice-president who is chairman of the drive.

William P. Gossett of Bloomfield Hills will be chairman of the steering committee.

OTHER OAKLAND county representatives will be C. Allen Harley, chairman of the special gifts committee; Herbert K. Lewis, 1818 Mellowing, public relations chairman; and Howard Hallisy, 937 Forest; Robert M. Dudley, 311 Wilson, Rochester; Scott Wigle, Walnut Lake, who will assist Lewis.

Mrs. Fred Black, Old Orchard Trail, will head the women's activities.

Starting April 20, the campaign will seek to raise $30,000 toward the support of 16 accredited, non-profit Negro colleges whose graduates become influential in raising citizenship standards in communities where they reside.

STARTING HIS first term as mayor of Bloomfield Hills is Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, executive vice president of the Briggs Manufacturing company. Briggs, a member of the Hills city commission for five years, was elected to head the city's government by four fellow-commissioners at their annual re-organizational meeting Tuesday night.

Gun Club Shoot For Grand Opening

The Birmingham Gun Club will hold a registered invitational shoot Sunday, April 19, at 10 a.m., to celebrate the grand opening of their new club house and location on Richardson road in Commerce township.

Four electric traps will be operated with cash prizes to high scorers in the four .25 target events.

A buffet luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. to contestants.

The 115 member club recently completed a modern clubhouse on the new site.

Cranbrook Paintings Hang in Sylvan Glen Inn

Paintings and prints by students of Cranbrook academy of art will decorate the walls of Sylvan Glen Inn, Rochester road, as a part of extensive redecoration in preparation for the spring opening of the Inn's semi-public golf courses.

Original paintings in various realistic and modern styles, on temporary exhibition at the Inn with the approval of Zoltan Sepeshy, director of the Academy, are hung in the dining and grill rooms, which have been redesigned and enlarged. A new kitchen has also been built and will continue under the management of Felix and Mary Kotylo.

Fairfield Area Owners Form New Association

Formation of the Fairfield Property Owners Association, Inc., was announced this week by John Stiff, chairman of the steering committee.

The area included is Bates, Henrietta and Pierce, between Lincoln and Southlawn.

Residents of the area will meet April 23 in the Pierce school gym at 8:30 p.m. to formulate plans, adopt by-laws and name directors.

Others of the steering committee, meeting for the past two months are Robert Winton, Brent Hogshead, Scott Purvis, James Tobin, Robert Coughlin, James Smith, Roy Laundry, Marvin Brokaw, Charles Mason and Joseph Hengleman.

INCARCERATING INSECTS—Catching newly hatched beetles as they fall from the bark of giant Douglas fir trees will help forestry scientists plot their breeding habits and find new ways to combat them. Seen above, Paul Lauterbach, researcher for the Weyerhaeuser Timber company checks a beetle trap on a fir in the company's Milkoma farm near North Bend, Ore. The Douglas-fir beetles destroyed over 3,000,000 board-feet of timber on the company's farm last year.

Birmingham Tops Red Cross Quota

Once again Birmingham has contributed over and above the quota asked, by the American Red Cross.

This year's returns, according to Bellull Travis, chairman, amount to $14,588.28, topping the $14,000 quota by a safe margin.

In announcing these figures, Travis said he wished to thank all for their splendid support of the current fund campaign.

He particularly stressed the work done by Mrs. Robert Chambers, Mrs. John Gary, Mrs. William Adams and Mrs. W. Holzworth, who served as co-chairmen and assisted in recruiting workers and organizing groups to handle the many details of the drive.

Travis said he felt it quite possible that when the final figures are tallied Birmingham will reach the $15,000 mark.
