Annual Breakfast Climaxes Season For Shain Class

The thirty-fourth session of the Ruth Shain class in International Relations will draw to a close with a traditional breakfast reunion Tuesday morning, May 7, at the Community House.

As in other years an outstanding expert on foreign affairs will be the guest speaker. Coming to address this year's breakfast meeting will be Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi, the non-Communist member of the Hungarian coalition government.

SPONSORED jointly by the Birmingham Chapter of the American Association of University Women and the Birmingham Woman's Club, the weekly session at the Community House is open to all interested in the field of foreign affairs, and, over the decades, has drawn women from widespread areas while becoming a Birmingham tradition.

Throughout its existence the class has been conducted by Mrs. Shain, long a leader in local civic and cultural projects whose hope is to provide an "opportunity for an exchange of opinions and viewpoints," maintaining that "democratic expression is the keystone of government."

THE MAY 7 breakfast will be served at 9 a.m. with Dr. Nyaradi's lecture scheduled for 10:15. Departing from tradition, the affair will be open to the public, with tickets available for either breakfast or the lecture or both.

The road was appointed publicity chairman.

Others attending the meeting were the Herb Sneddings of Oaklawn avenue. Membership is open to all interested by contacting Bert Jackson of 567 Frank street. Next season's program will open in October with a monthly dance.

You are cordially invited

To inspect the new wools from all over the globe—custom-tailored for you in any style preference. Prices are no higher than comparable "ready-mades" off the rack that were made for no one in particular; and, of course, saving you a lot of time trying to find what you want.

This is McCoy's 36th year in the fine clothing field, and we have made a special effort to show you every desirable fabric under one roof, making it unnecessary to visit the big City to find just the right shade—fabric—color and style.

Suit and outer-coat prices are $100.00, $115.00, $125.00 to $145.00 incorporating the finest of "Imported" wools and silks.

SPORT COATS $79.50 to $125. (Cashmere)

Drop in and See the Largest Selection of Imported and Domestic Wools Ever Shown in This Section—

- Gabardines . . . regular and charmeen
- Flannels — Sharkskin — Tweeds
- Tropicals — Silks and Cashmere

The hand-tailoring necessary on McCoy clothes takes time—about three weeks, early in the season—and we earnestly advise selections at your earliest convenience and they can be finished for you when you want them.

SLACKS READY-TO-WEAR

We have added the finest hand-tailored slacks made for those who want them hurriedly or don't have to have them tailored. Flannels, Gabardine (sheen and charmeen) and sun-frost cords. Prices: $29.00 to $39.50. Other slacks at $22.50—Flannel and Gabardine. Fitted with the same care as our custom-tailored slacks.

When tailoring first became an art in England, the tailor would call at the residence or office with his "woolen" samples. The fittings also were consummated at the customer's home or office. McCoy's now offer this service for those who for any reason cannot call at our shop or prefer shopping privately. In addition to this service, we will be pleased to submit samples for your evening or week-end inspection.

We are not novices here at McCoy's, boasting several generations of collective experience in the fine clothing field, from the wools at the mills to the finished garment on your back. Space does not permit our entire story, so stop in when convenient and "look us over".
