

Plan to Attend MSDA Sessions

Several Birmingham dentists will be in attendance when the annual state convention of the Michigan State Dental Association holds its 96th convention in Detroit April 22-23.

The 16th annual meeting of the Women's auxiliary, MSDA; 31st of the Michigan State Dental Hygienists and sixth of the Michigan State Dentists' Assistants association, will be held at the same time.

Among those from Birmingham who will take an active part in the three-day program are Drs. Raymond Walmouth and Stanley T. Jesson; members of the state board of trustees who meet Tuesday for a business session.

Drs. Melvin Noonan and George Martin will take part in the clinical program. Miss Frances Shook will assist during the dental hygienists meeting.

Local members of the several groups include Mrs. Stanley R. Jesson, Mrs. N. Weir Burkman, Mrs. Howard Green, Mrs. A. K. Foepfer, Mrs. Willard White and Mrs. James Riley.

Dr. Edward Bartlett Spaulding, 555 West Maple, oldest living president of the MSDA, has announced his plans to attend the meeting.

Vaughan School Cubs Schedule Nature Hike

The 10 members of Vaughan school (Cub Scout Pack B-6) will take a trip to Kensington state park April 23 for a nature hike in connection with the bird conservation program they are now conducting. Their park hike will be under the guidance of a park official.

Also in connection with their current program, the boys have set up a window display on birds at the Shash drug store.

Among their recent activities was the preparation of several Easter baskets which the boys took to the polo patients at the Sister Kenny foundation in Pontiac.
