

AAUW Group's Monday Show Closes Season

With two performances, 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Monday, April 6, of "Hansel and Gretel" by the Wayne University Children's Theater group, the curtain will fall on the 1937-38 season of the Birmingham Children's Theater.

Following tradition the season included three plays, one produced by the local group, and two road shows which they sponsored. Plans are already being made for next year when the group will open with their own production of "Treasure Island."

FOR THE April 6 presentations at the Birmingham Theater a number of Children's Theater members will form the usher corps. Among them will be the Mesdames W. G. Patton, Michael Remondino, Greenville Ryan, Gilbert Gove, F. C. Moriarty, George F. Green, Norman Gustafson, and the Misses Shirley and Louise Hersey.

Single tickets will be available at the box office.
