

Tenor Back From New York For Next Cranbrook Concert

Wesley Dalton, fast-rising young tenor, currently appearing with the New York Opera Company, will be the guest artist at the April 4 Cranbrook Music Guild presentation.

Dalton, still in his early twenties, made his debut with the New York City Opera as Plakerton in "Madame Butterfly," with such success that he was signed for a three-year contract.

WESLEY DALTON

BORN IN Dearborn, Michigan, Dalton attended Dearborn Junior College and Wayne University. He began singing in the boys' soprano choir at the First Congregational Church of Dearborn, and began vocal training at the age of sixteen under Avery Crew.

Within a year Dalton was performing as tenor soloist in choral groups in and around Detroit, and was tenor soloist for the Calvary Presbyterian Church of Detroit for four years. After that he sang for a season with the Detroit Civic Light Opera Company and the following year received high praise for his portrayal of Brock Weaver in Kurt Weill's "Down in the Valley" with the Detroit Opera Society.

At the same time Dalton was district winner of the Metropolitan Auditions of the Air, heard by Gustav Halseg, Dalton came to New York for his widely acclaimed debut. Since then he has appeared in "La Boheme," "La Traviata," and "Don Giovanni."

For Columbia Masterworks Dalton has recorded three operatic songs to be released: "The Student Prince," "Desert Song," and "Merry Widow" with Dorothy Kilgallen.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Abbott will attend with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Catalano, newcomers to Birmingham, they will be in addition to the community's musical life as Mr. Catalano is an accomplished violinist.

LeRoy W. Dahlberg, vice-president of the Cranbrook Music Guild, will preside in the absence of Guild president Mrs. Benjamin Brewster who, with Brewster, is spending a month in the south.

Little Gallery's April Show Drawn From South, West

Peggy deSalle went south and west for the paintings which make up the April show at the Little Gallery on East Maple road.

On display are the eggs temperas of George Millan, currently teaching at the University of Florida, and the water colors of Fred Meyer, a member of the art department, faculty at Scripps College in Claremont, Calif.

Millan possesses degrees in painting, architecture and design, and has exhibited in Florida, New York and abroad. His use of egg tempera receives a medium order that oil painting, and is noted for its detail, brilliance and permanence.

Meyer is well known on the west coast for his exhibitions and the many awards he has won for his watercolors. Typical of his subjects are his paintings, "Fishermen and Nets," and "Redondo Pier."

Have You Met . . .
Mr. and Mrs. John Lachner who, since December, are residents of 2277 Wing Lake road. The Lachners formerly made their home in Berkeley. They have four children, Jack, 13; Barbara, junior high student; Carol, 11; and Mark, 7, who attend Franklin school, and William, 2 1/2 years old.

John Lachner, a manufacturer's agent, is a member of the Birmingham Country Club, Royal Oak F.G.A.M., Scottish Rite, and Modern Temple. Mrs. Lachner is a member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Social Briefs

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sproule of Yorkshire returned from two weeks at Pompano Beach, Fla. in time to welcome daughter Jeanne home on spring vacation from the University of Colorado. Jeanne will return to her sophomore studies on the Boulder, Colo., campus Sunday.
