The midget car which Jo Mena, famed simian performer at the Fruit zoo, will be driving this summer is a Franklin product. It is an aluminum model of a Chrysler of several years back, front-drive with engine, Walter Zierer of Scott-is drive, and his sons John, 11, and Bill, 7, built the car using lime ash. The boys having outgrown it recently sold it to the zoo.

The Clifford Hughes, Crestwood drive, and the Arthur Thurens, Old Colony road, returned to their homes yesterday from winter vacation together. The trip was made by plane with the first stop a four-day stay at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Later stops were at Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Jamaica and Haiti. The Hughes report the West of several years back, front-drive with engine, Walter Zierer of Scott-

Tower Isle hotel in Jamaica they were joined by the Cliff Harrisons of Franklin Park drive and the D. Clae McKays of Woodcrest. The McKays returned home last Sunday night from their Bying Caribbean trip which originated at New York and took them as far south as Caracas, Venezuela.

Back in their Riverwood road home after a southern vacation are Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shoemaker. They left early in March for two weeks at Key West and a week at Ft. Lauderdale-by-the-Sea. Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Greig, of 14-Mile road, are home after a three week vacation in California.

Mr. and Mrs. George Adren and son Jimmy, of Colony Hill road, have guests to spend the Easter holiday in Florida. They will be the guests of her brother and family, the Kenneth Tants, at Anna Marie. They also plan to visit her father at Ft. Mead. The John Faulkners and youngsters Justice and Johnny are going sightseeing over Easter weekend. The children will be making their first visit to Niagara Falls.

Mrs. Stanley Brown will hold a tea at her home on S. Greenbrier road on the afternoon of Monday, April 13 for the leader, committee members and mothers of Brownie girl scout troop 340. Invited guests include Mrs. Thomas Dadson, leader, Mesdames Roy Garkner, Clifford Baugh, John Wendorf, Harold Indian and Oliver Kirk, committee members, and Mesdames Alfred Zimmerman, John Faulkner, Donald Jacker, Andrew Sutherland, Herbert Taraska and Frank Winchel. Mrs. Brown is co-leader of the troop.

Mrs. Al Grigg was hostess at her home on Scenic drive last Monday night at a linen shower honoring bride-elect Sue Fomeny whose marriage to Don Roberts will take place on April 11. The 20 guests included Mrs. L. J. Roberts the groom's mother.

The newly organized Franklin branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association met at the Irving road home of Mrs. Maxwell Millard last Monday afternoon to adopt bylaws and complete details of organization. Membership plan to meet each month. They were invited to meet with the Birmingham branch at the Birmingham Community House on April 13.

Delores Tully, daughter of the Joseph Tully's of Riverwood road was 10 on Saturday, March 21. She celebrated with classmates from the fourth grade at Holy Name school with luncheon at her home, roller skating at the Ambassador rink and games at home later in the afternoon.

Teddy Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elliott of Captains Lane, nine last Saturday, entertained classmates from the third grade at Franklin school with a birthday luncheon at his home and an afternoon at the movies.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all done—all the society editor about them.
