Wing Lake Foxcroft News

By JILL ROBERTS
May 6-8-3022

The spring season for residents of Wing Lake and Foxcroft appears to be festively launched. Local activities are punctuated with cocktail and dinner parties, plus a gradual exodus of vacationists either Europe-bound or seeking the sun on Florida beaches.

Sailing shortly for an indefinite stay in Europe are Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Keller of Wing Lake road. Mrs. Keller's sister, Mrs. Robert Rudzinski of Denton, Mich., will accompany them. Their itinerary will include Italy and England, with other points of interest on the continent tentatively scheduled.

Engagement Told On West Coast

From California comes word of the engagement of Laurel Joan Walsh, daughter of P. H. Walsh of Detroit, to Charles Richard Prosser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Prosser of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Laurel is a graduate of Baldwin high school and attended Michigan State Normal College. She is now with American Airlines in Los Angeles.

Her father graduated from the University of Michigan where he was affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta.

Laurel is expected home the end of April with further details on her September wedding plans.

recently entertained a group of friends at dinner at their home on Wing Lake road, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Lou Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edgington, Mr. William Drissen, Wing Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. George Scott of Bloomfield Village.

Final preparations for a family holiday in the Old South have sprung up the last few days of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wright of Wing Lake road. On March 20 Mrs. Wright entrained with the children for Zwingsboro, Ala., where they will spend an Easter reunion with her parents. Wright will fly down on Good Friday to take flight back to the agenda in Sea Island, Ga., where Mr. and Mrs. Wright plan golf, boat and sight-seeing, all of which will amount to about three weeks.

Mrs. W. D. Phipps, Jr. of Wing Lake left recently for a Florida motor trip with Mrs. Charles Davidson of Cleveland, formerly of Birmingham. They will be staying at Gulf Ranch on Longboat Key, near Sarasota, and will be joined shortly by Pittman and Davidson who are flying down. The two couples plan to stay about a month.

Leaving aboard an airplane on April 9 are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Drissen of Wing Lake road bound for Sarasota, Fla., where they will visit the Pittmans and the Davidsons. The sixties, all avid fishermen, are voyaging to Marco Island for a lot of long-awaited tarpon fishing. The Drissens hope to snag a big one during their two-and-a-half weeks of angling.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. LaBelle of Birmingham had just recently unpacked their bags from a three week sojourn in Florida. They are now headquartered at Longboat Key.

Psychological Warfare Is Shain Class Subject

"Psychological warfare as used by the United States in the Near East, America, and by communist forces in Europe, Russia, and China will be treated by Mrs. John Turner of Pleasant Ridge in her April 17 subject at the Hill Shain class in Birmingham.

The class, which meets weekly at the Community Center, held its annual reunion breakfast Tuesday at a cocktail and buffet dinner party. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Crockett of Birmingham; Mrs. and Mrs. Wayne Anderson of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roberts, both of Wing Lake.

On March 18 Mr. and Mrs. H. Leaf of Wing Lake road departed southward for an unscheduled vacation. Except for an initial stop in Florida, they will drift leisurely down to Florida, motoring to various points of interest for an undetermined length of time.
