County Red Cross Drive Stays Open Still Longer

"With nine local communities already over the top, Oakland county's Red Cross chapter will hold its fund drive open to coincide with the extended national campaign," Gar A. Sweeney, county campaign chairman said last week.

Sweeney said Birmingham, with Dallas Travis, chairman, and Bloomfield, Mrs. Louis Colombo, chairman were among those which had exceeded their quotas. The county quota, however, has not been reached.

Encouraged by a statement from President Dwight D. Eisenhower, national campaigners will extend the drive until the $20,000,000 goal is attained, Sweeney said.

Day-Long Program Precedes Charter Of B'ham Y Club

William Fletcher, Regional Director of the International Association of Y Men's Clubs, made the presentation of the charter to Norman "Bud" James, Jr., president of the Birmingham Y Men, last Saturday, April 13, at the induction banquet held at Christ Church.

A total of 118 guests from all parts of Michigan and Northern Ohio were on hand to hear Les Barker, retiring district governor, install the new officers and to hear Gordon H. Stow of Lansing speak.

The program started at noon with a buffet luncheon followed by a tour of Kingswood and Cranbrook schools including the museum of science and the art academy. The vicar of Christ Church, Andrew Williams, spoke to the group on their return to the church.

Ann Garrison Leads Discussion

Ann Garrison, 577 Westwood, presented the seven-hour program and led an information discussion of the plan to channel information of state and national importance directly to people in their own communities, at the meeting of the Southwest Oakland County Democratic Club held last Saturday evening at Walled Lake Elementary School.

Mrs. Garrison is Oakland county chairman and organized the co-operation of many members of the club to act as hosts and as discussion leaders.

During the business meeting chaired by Mrs. Simpson Green of West Bloomfield, Joe Tuma of Farmington township was elected vice-president to replace Frank Rennie of Highland who is moving out of the county.

Alfred F. Fennell of Walled Lake was appointed finance chairman and Mrs. Donald Lee of Farmington, social chairman. The club is planning a lawn dance.
