

Early Summer Garden Tours Planned Now

More than 150 women will gather at the Detroit Boat Club this noon, April 23, for a pre-view luncheon for garden pilgrimages committee members and presidents of all garden clubs in the Detroit area.

Plans are already being made for the 1953 Garden Pilgrimages held annually for the benefit of the Detroit Garden Center on Belle Isle. Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann, pilgrimage chairman, announced that the pilgrimages have been expanded this year to four weekends to take place in May and June.

Working on the project from this area are Mrs. Cash Talbot, luncheon chairman, and Mrs. Frederick Linascheid, secretary and publicity chairman from the Royal Oak-Birmingham district.

Lays Groundwork For May Dinner

A number of members of the Beverly Hills Association gathered at the Warwick drive home of Mrs. John L. Shepherd Friday afternoon, April 17.

Plans are presently being made for the Association's annual dinner meeting slated for May 12 at the Community House. Arrangements have been made for a short business meeting followed by a talk by James C. McCauley on "Planning and Development of J. L. Hudson's Regional Shopping Center", accompanied by illustrated slides.

HANDLING the ticket sale are Mrs. R. C. Wain and Mrs. E. Harry Hyson. Mrs. John Harling and Mrs. Alan H. Brundage are seeing to the decorations, and Mrs. John Madonia is in charge of correspondence.

Virginia Decker is publicity chairman. Mrs. Shepherd is general chairman of the affair.
