

Band Concert Planned May 7

The annual concert given by Birmingham High School Band for the public will be held Thursday evening, May 7, at the high school, it was announced today.

Tickets will be available beginning tomorrow (Friday) from band members and their mothers, according to Mrs. Donald E. Plumstead, chairman of the ticket sale committee. Proceeds from the concert aid the band's fund for uniforms and music.

Arrangements for ticket sales were made by the committee at a meeting in the Community House Tuesday. In addition to Mrs. Plumstead, the committee includes Mrs. Martha R. Masters, Mrs. Ronald E. Bisher, Mrs. Thomas J. Hill, Mrs. Roger S. Thompson, Mrs. Clarence W. Kraft, Mrs. Robert E. Bisher, Mrs. Mark E. Frank and Mrs. Herbert K. Lewis.

Cranebrook Summer School Theatre Staff Is Named

Marion Nevill Kirk-Jones of Birmingham and Lafayette, Indiana, will be in charge of directing at the six-week session of the Cranebrook Summer School of the Theatre beginning June 22 in the Greek Theatre at Cranebrook. Carl C. Wombetter, school director, has announced.

Mrs. Kirk-Jones has been a pupil of Martha Graham, Humphrey and Weidman, Hanya Holm, and the American School of the Ballet. She has done choreography for the Boston Symphony Orchestra and has taught modern dancing at Cornell University. Since 1948 she has been director of dancing at the Cranebrook Summer School of the Theatre.

Other members of the staff will be William Hollingsworth, head of dramatics, Cooley High School; Sara Smith, formerly of Bonstelle School; and Barbara Beach, synchronized swimming star from Manhattan State College, who will direct activities at Jones Pool.

Barbara Hapel, formerly of the Rollins Theatre School, the University of Birmingham and Stratford on Avon, will be a speech assistant. She has been a commercial relation consultant with the DuPont network, and was a teaching fellow in the Speech Department at the University of Michigan.

University Day May 2 For High

The annual University day at Ann Arbor May 2 will attract 44 Birmingham high school students and faculty members.

The purpose of the day is to acquaint prospective students with college life. The University of Michigan campus and courses offer a wide variety of opportunities.

The program will open at 9:30 a.m. with an assembly in the Rackham building amphitheater and a welcome by Harlan Batcher, President.

The day's agenda includes guided tours of the Michigan union, Women's league housing facilities and educational buildings. After lunch there will be a mixer to give students an opportunity to get acquainted and a coffee hour is planned for visiting faculty.

Hattie Lippman, looks down at Bob Whitlatch, during final rehearsal of "Happier Days of Your Life", an English farce to be presented Friday and Saturday, April 21 and 22, in Cranebrook School auditorium by Erzsabeton. The play involves humorous situations arising when a boy and a girl school are accidentally housed in the same building during the war-time emergency.

Michigan Press Meeting Attracts 28 High Students

Arrangements for 28 journalism students to attend the annual Michigan intercollegiate press association meeting in Ann Arbor Friday May 8 are underway.

Attendance at the press meeting is optional and cost of the lunch-tickets is the only expense for the entire day with reservations made by April 15.

Junior Dinner Plans Readied

While the committee makes final plans, some in great secrecy, the junior class looks forward to a good time at its class dinner slated for next Tuesday.

Janice Cooper and Jean Flores are co-chairmen with Robert Richards as chief faculty adviser.

From a class vote on eight movies, "Halo Aikens", entertainment chairman, and Mr. Richards selected the movie the class will see. Whichever one it will be is a secret.

Under chairmanship of Lynn Bennett, Dorothy Schwimmer, Susan Doherty and Mollie Humpes, the decoration committee consists of Sharon Stanton, Robin Reed, Margaret Davis, Cheryl Kirkelson, Marion Domrowski, Genevieve LeJard, Kitty Schoonmaker, Barb Aikens, Jean Flores and Janice Cooper. Miss Gladys Highway is adviser for decorations.

Programs, edited by Kitty Schoonmaker and Pat Jackson, will be done by the journalism class under Miss Mula McGiffin's direction. Others are: Theresa and Terry Laundry, ticket; Pat Jackson, invitations; Elizabeth Williams and Neal Chandler, publicity; and Mary Buchanan, cleanup.

Crane Trackmen Top Berkley High

The Cranebrook Varsity Track Squad ran down a weak Berkley High School team last Friday by the score of 21-1-3 to 17-2-3 in the Cranbrook field.

Outstanding point winners for Cranebrook were Grant Griswold, Bob Reed, Don Wells and Jon Thompson. Berkley's Don Jarvis repeated his victories of last year in the 100 and 220 yard dashes.
