PTO Ponders School Needs

The problem of ever-increasing school housing needs will be the main topic of the agenda of the April 13 meeting of the Bloomfield Hills PTO.

The organization will meet Monday evening in the all-purpose room of the Vaughn school. A coffee hour from 8 to 8:30 p.m. will be followed by a short business meeting at which Walter Tiede, chairman of the nominating committee, will present nominations for three new PTO board members, to hold office for the June 1953-54 term.

HAZEL MacGIRG, elementary superintendent for the district and Richard Spiess, high school principal, will discuss school housing needs for the coming year.

The school board's opinion will be presented by Frank Arnold, treasurer, and acting chairman. Other school board members present will be invited to participate in an open discussion.

April 24 Reserved For Round-Up Time

Its "Round Up" time at Baldwin school and the Baldwin PTA are deep in plans for the annual festival scheduled this year for Friday, April 24.

Among the feature attractions will be the Meredith Babby's Marionettes in "Aardvark and Wonderful Lamp!" A merry-go-round and fish pond will be set up for the small fry and amusements are planned for all ages.

Jack Taylor, PTA president, announces that Bill Kennedy of Finlay street has been named program chairman for the event.

City-Country PTA Near Pediatrician

Dr. Ruben Meyer, pediatrician, will address the City and Country School PTA at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 14, at the school in Bloomfield Hills.

Dr. Meyer's topic will be "The Tension of Children's Development." Associate professor of pediatrics of the Wayne University College of Medicine, Dr. Meyer is consulting pediatrician to the Detroit Board of Health. He is on the staff of Children's Hospital and others in the Detroit area.

Venture Club One Year Old

The Birmingham Venture Club had one candle on its cake at its first "birthday" party. Organized April 5, 1952 as a service club for young business women employed in Birmingham, the club marked its first anniversary at a party given by the Soroptimist club at the home of Edith Foster on April 7.

Also in the evening's program was the installation of five new members by president, Betty Fleming, assisted by Ruth Smith, Marge Williams, Soroptimist president Edith Foster, and Georgia Mitchell, president of the American Council of Venture clubs.

NEW MEMBERS are Betty Conrad, Nancy Dickson, Jean Jenkins, Marilyn Skelley and Mary Ann Tomblin. They will join in the Venture project of working with mental patients from the Pontiac State Hospital.
