

Suburban Seen

By KAY REED

A LOCAL HUSBAND is yearning for Spring. The other night he wandered into the kitchen where his wife was doing the dishes and gazed at the glass which holds the coffee-strainer cloth when not in business. His question: "When is that little sweet-potato going to bloom?" Off to the Garden Club's workshop.

NO SACRIFICE is too great when the show must go on. The heroine of "Dragon John", the play currently in rehearsal by the AAUW Puppeteers, was without a lock of hair. Now she is a mass of golden ringlets, courtesy of a Puppeteer who took the clippers to her own coiffure.

MR. AND MRS. Harry Altick of Kennesaw road will greet friends and relatives of Mrs. Altick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lant Salmons of Detroit, who will be celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Sunday afternoon. The Salmons were married in Kansas, April 8, 1903, and came to Detroit thirty-five years ago.

Assisting Mrs. Altick in receiving the guests will be her sister, Mrs. Clarence Joslin of Pleasant Ridge. Besides their two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Salmons have two granddaughters, Mary Jane and Judith Ann Joslin, and grandson, Harry Palmer Altick. The Salmons and the Alticks just returned from three weeks in St. Petersburg, Fla.

PACKING A LOT into a few days is Princeton University senior C. Thoburn Maxwell II of Wing Lake who took time off recently to go to Chicago to see his former roommate, Bruce Macomber, off to Korea for service with the Navy. Next on his itinerary was the Phi Gamma Delta house at the University of Michigan where he was the weekend guest of Bill Hickman. Tobe returned to "Nassau Hall" just long to pick up his trunk togs and head for the University of North Carolina where he will spend Easter vacation. Tobe, holder of the Princeton mile record, will participate in the N. C. relay and will also run the mile in dual meets at Duke and Chapel Hill.

THE ADVENT of spring in Michigan is bringing local travelers back to their home haunts. The prospect of cross-country riding is luring Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Bigelow of Adams road back from Florida where they divided a month between Miami Beach and Hollywood Beach. They will return this week.

RETURNING FROM a two weeks southern trip are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Linton of Oakland boulevard. The Lintons reached Delray Beach via Williamsburg and Charleston. Just finishing three weeks at the Bellevue, Biltmore, Belleair, Fla., are Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Beltz of Meadowbrook Way, Lathrup Village.

MAKING THEIR HEADQUARTERS in Fort Lauderdale are Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burlingame of South Glenshurst drive. Daughter Gill flew in Friday from Ann Arbor while daughter-in-law, Beverly, came from Park Forest, Ill., Saturday to join the family group. Among the localites the Burlingames have spotted are the A. A. Appleford of Broadway boulevard and their son John who is vacationing from Birmingham high school. The senior Appleford had just returned from Nassau, and are now staying in Miami Beach. Also in Ft. Lauderdale after a few days in Nassau are the William Bachmanns of Golfview drive who were with the Martins of Bloomfield Hills.

THE LEROY VANDEVEERS are at Bali Core, enjoying the beach with daughters Connie and Lindsay. Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Wessels of Devonshire road have been deep-sea fishing and taking side trips around the state. The Irving Mackenzies and their two children are concentrating on the surf before returning to their home on Vaughan road.

LOCAL NEWS continues to revolve around the plans of Spring bride-effects. Planning May 2 nuptials are Mary Ellen Deckert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans F. Deckert of Lock-erie road, and William E. Riley. The couple will register their vows at two o'clock in the afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church, with a reception following in the church parlors.

Sally Ann Deckert will be her sister's maid of honor, and Joyce Bahr will be a bridesmaid. Russell Riley will be his brother's best man and Paul Kahn, Richard Yockum, Wesley Todd and Richard Riley will seat the guests. Among those who have already entertained for Mary Ellen are Mrs. Ray Shile and Mrs. Vern Bennett who hosted a miscellaneous shower in Mrs. Shile's home on West Twelve Mile road. Other March hostesses were the bride's aunt, Mrs. Fred Store and Mrs. Rudy Wilke who entertained at a kitchen shower at Red Run Golf Club.

The Misses Bahr and Deckert gave a dessert party in the Bahr home in Berkeley. Mrs. William C. Simpson of Arlington road invited neighborhood friends of the prospective groom's mother, Mrs. Russell W. Riley, to meet the bride-to-be at an evening party in her home. Mary Ellen's Kappa Delta sisters will fetter her Saturday at a shower in the Detroit home of Fran Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Riley will give the rehearsal dinner.

TILE

- Asphalt
- Rubber
- Cork
- Linotile
- Vinyl
- Plastic

Estimates Without Obligation
Expert Workmanship

T. E. HOGAN CO.

2865 Woodward Avenue
3 blocks south of 12 Mile
LI 4-3300
Open Friday Till 9 P. M.

Most married couples, though happy together, often get into the careless habit of being courteous to each other... courteous to the little everyday things of life. Yet each of us hangs for and responds to loving attention.

THE PRINCIPALS gather to straighten out their tangled romances in a scene from the St. Dunstan Guild presentation of Noel Coward's "Private Lives". On stage at the Cranbrook Pavilion on Lone Pine road are (left to right): Mrs. Rudolf Eberstadt, Jr., Mrs. Frederick C. Pew, Mrs. Zoltan Sepeshy, W. H. Adams and Malcolm Denny. Performances are scheduled for Friday and Saturday evenings, April 10-11, 17-18.

JEANNE CAROLYN BROWN

Jeanne Brown In June Vows

At a small cocktail party Saturday afternoon in their Charing Cross road home, Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Merton Brown announced the engagement of their daughter, Jeanne Carolyn, to Robert Prescott Gygis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prescott Gygis of Shaker Heights, Ohio.

JEANNE WILL graduate from Smith College in June and is a graduate of Kingswood school. Robert, an alumni of Colgate University, graduated from the University School of Cleveland. His fraternity is Delta Kappa Epsilon. He served as a paratrooper in Japan with the 11th Airborne division.

The nuptials are planned for late in June.

GOLFERS!

NOW OPEN

Royal Oak GOLF RANGE

Woodward & Coldidge

LARGE SELECTION NEW & USED CLUBS AND BALLS

NO INCREASE IN PRICES

Will-O-Way Calls Novice Thespians To Summer School

The call for drama aspirants has been issued by Will-O-Way Apprentice Theater of Bloomfield Hills, with applications being taken for the school's summer session which begins June 29.

Anyone over sixteen years of age having a high school diploma is eligible for the Apprentice Theater and there is no upper age limit, according to Oella Turner, director.

Applicants will be screened by means of a reading. Appointments are now being taken by phone or mail.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NEWS MAY BE FOUND ON Page 2 Section 2

Those interested may obtain further information by calling or contacting the theater located on West Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills.

Unwanted Hair

Removed Permanently

By Electrolysis

The Only Method Endorsed by Physicians

Latest Shortwave Approved by Federal Communications Comm. Free Probe That Guarantees Hair PERMANENT-SCIENTIFIC-SAFE

ROSE SCHERMER
Registered Electrolytist
195 W. 5th Mile Rd., FERNDALE
LIncoln 62-258

Focal Point of Admiring Glances

STYLE MART
New Peck's Selection for Men

Self-Stripe Patterned Gabardine SUIT

Light as a feather, cool as a breeze, are our new Knox felt hats that you'll wear in coolest spring and summer. At your choice is a wide variety of styles and colors.

HATS

Light Weight
Right Style
Spring Felt

$8.50
$10.00
$15.00

Coat & Trousers

$60.00

PECK'S MEN'S WEAR

108 S. Woodward MI 4-7724

New York State Is Scene Of Easter Sunday Nuptials

Tully, N.Y., will be the future home of Mr. and Mrs. William Everett Lockwood, married at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, April 5, in Yorktown Heights, N.Y.

The bride, the former Hannah Poole, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin O. Poole, Jr., of Peekskill, N.Y. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick St. John Lockwood, Jr., of Elton road are the parents of the groom.

For the double-ring ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church, the bride wore her grandmother's dress of ivory-shaded silk with lace trim, a train and a long veil. She carried a large loose arrangement of esterried daisies.

Helga Steinhart of New York City was the only bridal attendant. Her pastel blue net dress was accented with lace, and her wide lace hat was trimmed with blue ribbon.

FREDERICK C. John Lockwood III of Hamilton, N.Y., was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Bruce Bicknell and Al Mencher of Syracuse, N.Y., Thomas Mackin of Freeport, N.Y., and Frank Tanser of Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Poole wore a navy coat dress with a white gardenia corsage.

REPAIRED RENOVATED IN DAY

Just 1 day is all we need to pick up your mattress and/or boxspring, restore all of its original comfort and sleep giving qualities, then return it that evening. You indicate the way you want it, longer, wider, firmer, etc., we'll return it to your specifications.

New Custom-Built Mattresses

OXFORD MATTRESS CO.

37 Years in Oakland County

Phone— 332 W. HURON
Dial O ask for FOR ESTIMATES
Enterprise 6310 PONTIAC
FONTEC 2-7695

the SECRET PANEL does it!

Looks different—Is different Glassford puts leno elastic in this girde's front panel—controls it secretly from within—and surrounds it with satin elastic. Flattens better than bones, smooths you—comfortably!

• Leno elastic front and side panels with satin elastic. 4" top. Zipper. White.

14" length $15.00
16" length $16.50

The Glassford Shop

Personalized Service By Graduate Cosmeticians

Store Hours: Mon. thru Sat., 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

135 Pierce MI 4-5244